ENROLLED, House Joint Resolution,
 URGING THE UNITED STATES CONGRESS TO REAUTHORIZE
FEDERALLY PROVIDED TERRORISM REINSURANCE FOR INSURERS IN ORDER TO MAINTAIN STABILITY IN THE INSURANCE AND REINSURANCE MARKETS AND TO CONTINUE TO DELIVER SUBSTANTIVE, DIRECT BENEFITS TO BUSINESSES, WORKERS, CONSUMERS, AND THE ECONOMY OVERALL IN THE AFTERMATH OF A TERRORIST ATTACK ON THE UNITED STATES.

 WHEREAS, insurance protects the United States economy from the adverse effects of the risks inherent in economic growth and development while also providing the resources necessary to rebuild physical and economic infrastructure, offer indemnification for business disruption, and provide coverage for medical and liability costs from injuries and loss of life in the event of catastrophic losses to persons or property; and

 WHEREAS, the terrorist attack of September 1, 2001, produced insured losses larger than any natural or man-made event in history, with claims paid by insurers to their policyholders eventually totaling some $32.5 billion, making this the second most costly insurance event in United States history; and

 WHEREAS, the sheer enormity of the terrorist induced loss, combined with the possibility of future attacks,

1 produced financial shock waves that shook insurance markets
2 and caused insurers and reinsurers to exclude coverage arising
3 from acts of terrorism from virtually all commercial property 4 and liability policies; and

5 WHEREAS, the lack of terrorism risk insurance 6 contributed to a paralysis in the economy, especially in 7 construction, tourism, business travel, and real estate 8 finance; and

9 WHEREAS, the United States Congress originally 10 passed the Terrorism Risk Insurance Act of 2002, Pub. L.
11 107-297 (TRIA), in which the federal government agreed to 12 provide terrorism reinsurance to insurers and reauthorized
13 this arrangement via the Terrorism Risk Insurance Extension 14 Act of 2005, Pub. L. 109-144, and the Terrorism Risk Insurance 15 Program Reauthorization Act of 2007, Pub. L. 110-160 (TRIPRA); 16 and

17 WHEREAS, under TRIPRA, the federal government
18 provides such reinsurance after industry-wide losses
19 attributable to annual certified terrorism events exceed one 20 hundred million dollars; and

21 WHEREAS, coverage under TRIPRA is provided to an 22 individual insurer after the insurer has incurred losses
23 related to terrorism equal to twenty percent of the insurer's 24 previous year earned premium for property-casualty lines; and

1 WHEREAS, after an individual insurer has reached 2 such a threshold, the insurer pays fifteen percent of residual 3 losses and the federal government pays the remaining 4 eighty-five percent; and

5 WHEREAS, the Terrorism Risk Insurance Program has an 6 annual cap of one hundred billion dollars of aggregate insured 7 losses, beyond which the federal program does not provide 8 coverage; and

9 WHEREAS, TRIPRA requires the federal government to 10 recoup one hundred percent of the benefits provided under the 11 program via policy holder surcharges to the extent the 12 aggregate insured losses are less than twenty-seven billion 13 five hundred million dollars and enables the government to 14 recoup expenditures beyond that mandatory recoupment amount;
15 and

16 WHEREAS, without question, TRIA and its successors 17 are the principal reason for the continued stability in the 18 insurance and reinsurance market for terrorism insurance to 19 the benefit of our overall economy; and

20 WHEREAS, the presence of a robust private/public 21 partnership has provided stability and predictability and has 22 allowed insurers to actively participate in the market in a 23 meaningful way; and

24 WHEREAS, without a program such as TRIPRA, many of 25 our citizens who want and need terrorism coverage to operate

1 their businesses all across the nation would be either unable 2 to get insurance or unable to afford the limited coverage that 3 would be available; and

4 WHEREAS, without federally provided reinsurance, 5 property and casualty insurers will face less availability of 6 terrorism reinsurance and will therefore be severely 7 restricted in their ability to provide sufficient coverage for 8 acts of terrorism to support our economy; and

9 WHEREAS, unfortunately, despite the hard work and 10 dedication of this nation's counterterrorism agencies and the 11 bravery of the men and women in uniform who fought and 12 continue to fight battles abroad to keep us safe here at home, 13 the threat from terrorist attacks in the United States is both 14 real and substantial and will remain as such for the 15 foreseeable future; now therefore,

16 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, BOTH
17 HOUSES THEREOF CONCURRING, That we, the members of the Alabama
18 Legislature, urge the United States Congress and the President
19 of the United States to reauthorize the Terrorism Risk 20 Insurance Program.

21 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of this 22 resolution be sent to the President of the United States, the 23 Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, the 24 President Pro Tempore of the United States Senate, and the 25 members of the Alabama congressional delegation.
