SENATE BILL 14-174

BY SENATOR(S) Heath and Johnston, Aguilar, Crowder, Guzman, Herpin, Hodge, Kefalas, King, Nicholson, Rivera, Schwartz, Todd; also REPRESENTATIVE(S) McLachlan and Pabon, Buckner, Fields, Gardner, Kagan, Labuda, Lee, Mitsch Bush, Moreno, Pettersen, Rosenthal, Ryden, Williams, Wright.

CONCERNING THE CREATION OF THE PROSECUTION FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby finds that areas of Colorado struggle to attract highly qualified applicants to serve as deputy district attorneys. This challenge is particularly present in attempts to recruit and employ recent law school graduates into the offices of the state's rural district attorneys. Due to inherent differences in the funding mechanisms for the state's district attorneys' offices in comparison to the state judicial department, the department of law, and the state public defender, the opportunities for rural district attorneys to offer training and internship or externship opportunities are not comparable to these other state agencies. The general assembly recognizes the importance of enlisting highly qualified and talented attorneys into all branches of the criminal justice system in Colorado in a balanced fashion and hereby finds that it needs to implement incentives to encourage recent law school graduates to consider seeking careers as prosecutors in rural areas of the state.

(2) It is therefore the intent of the general assembly in enacting article 19.3 of title 23, Colorado Revised Statutes, to create a prosecution fellowship fund within the department of higher education that uses state moneys appropriated by the general assembly to fund a fellowship program to be administered by the Colorado district attorneys' council. The program will provide six, one-year fellowships for students chosen from the university of Colorado school of law and students from the university of Denver Sturm college of law each year. These fellowships will provide for the costs, salary, and benefits comparable to a newly hired deputy district attorney. Each of the selected fellows will be placed in a rural district attorney's office in Colorado pursuant to a selection process to be determined by a committee to be chaired by the executive director of the Colorado district attorneys' council, along with six other committee members, including the dean of each of the two law schools and four elected district attorneys or their designees.

SECTION 2. In Colorado Revised Statutes, add article 19.3 to title 23 as follows:
