AN ACT

IN THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

To amend the State Education Office Establishment Act of 2000 to authorize the Office of the State Superintendent of Education to develop and administer student assessments, to require the office to develop guidelines to govern the administration of practice and field tests, and to provide that a local education agency may develop and administer other assessments; to establish student promotion criteria, notice requirements, and remedial education requirements for District of Columbia Public Schools; and to amend the District of Columbia Municipal Regulations to make conforming amendments.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, That this act may be cited as the “Focused Student Achievement Amendment Act of 2013”.

TITLE I. STUDENT ASSESSMENT

Sec. 101. Short title.

This title may be cited as the “Student Assessment Amendment Act of 2013”.

Sec. 102. The State Education Office Establishment Act of 2000, effective October 21, 2000 (D.C. Law 13-176; D.C. Official Code § 38-2601 et seq.), is amended as follows:

(a) Section 2 (D.C. Official Code § 38-2601) is amended as follows:

(1) Subsection (a) is amended by striking the phrase “(“OSSE”)”.

(2) Subsection (b) is amended by striking the phrase “(“State Superintendent”)”.

(b) A new section 2b is added to read as follows:

“Sec. 2b. Definitions.

“For the purposes of this act, the term:

“(1) “Districtwide assessments” has the same meaning as provided in section 2002(13) of the District of Columbia School Reform Act of 1995, approved April 26, 1996 (110 Stat. 1321; D.C. Official Code § 38-1800.02(13)).

“(2) “Field test” means a test used during the test-development process to assess the quality and appropriateness of test items, administration procedures, scoring, and reporting.

“(3) “Local education agency” or “LEA” means an educational institution at the local level that exists primarily to operate a publicly funded school or schools in the District of Columbia, including the District of Columbia Public Schools and a District of Columbia public charter school.

“(4) “OSSE” means the Office of the State Superintendent of Education established by section 2.

ENROLLED ORIGINAL

“(5) “Practice test” means any test or other evaluation that has as its primary purpose the simulation of a Districtwide assessment or other test or evaluation as administered by an LEA rather than for assessing student proficiency levels or informing instruction and remediation needs.

“(6) “State Superintendent” means the head of OSSE appointed by the Mayor pursuant to section 2.”.

(c) A new section 7d is added to read as follows:

“Sec. 7d. Student assessments.

“(a)(1) OSSE shall develop and administer all student tests and evaluations required by federal law or as a condition of a federal grant including the yearly student academic assessments that are required for the purposes of determining adequate yearly progress under Title I, Part A, section 1111 of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965, approved January 8, 2002 (115 Stat. 1444; 20 U.S.C. § 6311).

“(2) OSSE may develop and administer:

“(A) Districtwide assessments; and

“(B) Tests and evaluations for purposes of allowing comparisons with international, national, or state indicators of student achievement; provided, that the test or evaluation be conducted with the smallest sample of students necessary to ensure valid comparisons.

“(3) OSSE shall develop guidelines for the administration of practice and field tests, which shall include recommendations on the:

“(A) Maximum amount of instructional time per year a school should devote to the administration of practice tests;

“(B) Appropriate timing for the administration of field tests; and

“(C) Maximum number of field tests in which a school should participate.

“(b)(1) An LEA may develop and administer developmentally appropriate tests and evaluations for purposes of assessing student proficiency levels or informing instruction and remediation needs and may establish a policy allowing the tests and evaluations to constitute a portion of a student’s final grade; provided, that the test or other evaluation primarily tests content for the course for which the assessment, test, or evaluation is administered and that the policy is provided to its students and parents and made publicly available at the start of the school year.

“(2) Each LEA shall limit administration of practice and field tests based upon:

“(A) The guidelines as developed by OSSE pursuant to subsection (a)(3) of this section; or

“(B) A policy developed by the LEA; provided, that if the LEA develops its own policy, it shall provide the policy to its students and the students’ parents and make the policy publicly available before the administration of any practice or field test.”.

TITLE II. STUDENT PROMOTION

Sec. 201. Short title.

This title may be cited as the “Student Promotion Act of 2013”.

ENROLLED ORIGINAL

Sec. 202. Definitions.

For the purposes of this title, the term:

(1) “Chancellor” means the chief executive officer of DCPS, as established by section 105 of the District of Columbia Public Schools Agency Establishment Act of 2007, effective June 12, 2007 (D.C. Law 17-9; D.C. Official Code § 38-174).

(2) “DCMR” means the District of Columbia Municipal Regulations.

(3) “DCPS” means the District of Columbia Public Schools agency established by section 102 of the District of Columbia Public Schools Agency Establishment Act of 2007, effective June 12, 2007 (D.C. Law 17-9; D.C. Official Code § 38-171).

(4) “Parent” means a natural parent, adoptive parent, step-parent, or any person who has legal custody of a student by court order.

(5) “Passing grade” means:

(A) For pre-kindergarten through 5th grade, achieving proficient or advanced grades in a subject or content area; and

(B) For 6th through 12th grade, receiving credit for a course.

(6) “Principal” means a principal at a DCPS school.

(7) “Promoted” describes students in pre-kindergarten through 11th grade who are advanced to the next grade level.

(8) “Promotion” means advancement to the next grade level for students in pre-kindergarten through grade 11.

(9) “Retained” describes students who are required to repeat their current grade level due to their failure to meet promotion criteria.

(10) “Retention” means repetition of a student’s current school grade level due to the student’s failure to meet promotion criteria.

(11) “School year” means the school term beginning in August of one year and ending in the following year. The term “school year” does not include summer school.

(12) “Subject” and “content area” mean a particular course of study, such as mathematics, English language arts, writing, or literature.

Sec. 203. Student retention and promotion.

(a) In accordance with the requirements of this act or as set forth in the DCMR, a DCPS student can be retained at any grade level.

(b)(1) Decisions regarding the promotion and retention of a DCPS student enrolled in pre-kindergarten through 8th grade shall be made by the student’s principal based upon the recommendation of the student’s teacher and in consideration of the promotion requirements set forth in the DCMR.

(2) A DCPS student enrolled in 9th grade through 11th grade shall be promoted if the student meets the promotion requirements as set forth in the DCMR.

(c) Notwithstanding subsection (b) of this section:

(1) A principal may:

(A) Retain any student who does not meet the promotion requirements set forth in the DCMR; and

ENROLLED ORIGINAL

(B) Promote a student who has failed to meet the promotion requirements set forth in the DCMR; provided, that the principal submits a written explanation justifying the decision to the Chancellor before the promotion is made; and

(2) No student with more than 30 unexcused absences in a school year shall be promoted unless the principal submits a written explanation justifying the decision to the Chancellor before the promotion is made.

(d) The Chancellor may develop separate promotion criteria for students who are enrolled in an English language learner program or receive special education services.

Sec. 204. Reporting requirements.

Within 30 calendar days after the end of the school year, the Chancellor shall submit to the Office of the State Superintendent of Education the name of each:

(1) Student who was identified as at risk of retention pursuant to 5-E DCMR § 2200.9 and a description of intervention services provided to the student; and

(2) Retained student, the underlying reason for the retention decision, and whether the student was identified as at risk of retention pursuant to the requirements of 5-E DCMR § 2200.9.

Sec. 205. Review; appeals.

(a) The Chancellor shall establish procedures to review retention decisions made pursuant to this act or as set forth in the DCMR and may review all retention decisions made pursuant to the procedures.

(b) The Chancellor shall establish a process, including deadlines, to allow the parent of a student to be retained for failure to meet the promotion criteria specified in the DCMR to appeal the retention decision on the grounds that the student has met the promotion criteria.

Sec. 206. Summer school.

(a)(1) Each student retained for the failure to meet the promotion criteria specified in the DCMR shall attend the summer school session immediately following the school year in which the student was retained, unless specifically excused by the principal or the Chancellor.

(2) A student who attends summer school pursuant to this section shall be reevaluated for promotion if the student:

(A) Does not have more than 3 unexcused absences from summer school; and

(B) Receives a passing grade in the subject or content area for which the student did not achieve a passing grade during the school year.

(3) A student who meets the promotion criteria set forth in the DCMR after the completion of summer school shall be promoted.

(b) In addition to those students identified to attend summer school pursuant to subsection (a) of this section, each principal shall provide to the Chancellor before the summer school registration deadline a list of the names of all students who the principal believes could benefit from summer school.
