2 Lampe, John A. Omotunde, and Tatyana Popovkina for winning the tenth LL.M.
3 International Commercial & Investment Arbitration Moot Competition and Olha Kaliuzhna
4 for being named the competition's best oralist; and for other purposes.

5 WHEREAS, the University of Georgia School of Law is dedicated to redefining what it 6 means to be a great national public law school by providing world-class, hands-on, and 7 purpose-driven educational experiences; and

8 WHEREAS, through these exemplary experiences, University of Georgia School of Law 9 students are able to become future leaders of their state and society; and 10 WHEREAS, through steady training, rhetorical prowess, and personal dedication, LL.M.

11 students Alexandra F. "Lexa" Lampe, John A. Omotunde, and Tatyana Popovkina recently
12 won the tenth LL.M. International Commercial & Investment Arbitration Moot Competition 13 hosted by American University; and

14 WHEREAS, not to be outdone while overcoming great odds and showing enormous strength, 15 LL.M. student Olha Kaliuzhna was named the competition's best oralist while competing

16 alongside her fellow Ukrainian teammates Oleksandra Iordanova and Valdyslav Rudzinsky; 17 and

18 WHEREAS, these remarkable teams were coached by Dean Peter B. “Bo” Rutledge and 19 LL.M. student Gloria María Correa; and

20 WHEREAS, this event was created specifically for LL.M. students to foster the study of 21 international arbitration for the resolution of international business and investment disputes; 22 and

23 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper that this magnificent team be appropriately 24 honored upon its triumphant and well-deserved victory.

25 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES that
