The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act to provide coverage for hearing aids.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 23 of chapter 32A of the General Laws, as amended by Chapter
2 233 of the Acts of 2012, is hereby amended by inserting the following paragraph:-

3 Section 17L. The commission shall provide to any active or retired employee of the 4 commonwealth who is insured under the group insurance commission, coverage for the cost of 1 5 hearing aid per hearing-impaired ear up to $500 and 80 percent coverage of the next $1,500 for 6 each hearing aid, as defined in section 196 of chapter 112, every 24 months upon a written 7 statement from the treating physician that the hearing aids are necessary regardless of etiology.
8 Coverage under this section shall include all related services prescribed by a licensed audiologist 9 or hearing instrument specialist, as defined in said section 196 of said chapter 112, including the 10 initial hearing aid evaluation, fitting and adjustments and supplies, including ear molds. The 11 insured may choose a higher priced hearing aid and may pay the difference in cost above the 12 limit in this section without any financial or contractual penalty to the insured or to the provider
13 of the hearing aid. The benefits in this section shall not be subject to any greater deductible, 14 coinsurance, copayments or out-of-pocket limits than other benefits provided by the insurer.
15 Nothing in this section shall prohibit the commission from offering greater coverage for hearing

16 aids than required by this section. This section shall also require coverage for such hearing aids 17 under any non-group policy.

18 SECTION 2. Section 47X of chapter 175 of the General Laws, as amended by Chapter
19 233 of the Acts of 2012, is hereby amended by adding the following paragraph:-

20 (g) Any policy of accident and sickness insurance as described in section 108 which 21 provides hospital expense and surgical expense insurance and which is delivered, issued or 22 subsequently renewed by agreement between the insurer and policyholder in the commonwealth;
23 any blanket or general policy of insurance described in subdivision (A), (C) or (D) of section 110 24 that provides hospital expense and surgical expense insurance and that is delivered, issued or 25 subsequently renewed by agreement between the insurer and the policyholder, within or without 26 the commonwealth; or any employees' health and welfare fund that provides hospital expense 27 and surgical expense benefits and that is delivered, issued or renewed to any person or group of 28 people in the commonwealth, shall provide coverage for the cost of 1 hearing aid per hearing-29 impaired ear up to $500 and 80 percent coverage of the next $1,500 for each hearing aid , as 30 defined in section 196 of chapter 112, every 24 months upon a written statement from the 31 treating physician that the hearing aids are necessary regardless of etiology. Coverage under this 32 section shall include all related services prescribed by a licensed audiologist or hearing 33 instrument specialist, as defined in said section 196 of said chapter 112, including the initial 34 hearing aid evaluation, fitting and adjustments and supplies, including ear molds. The insured 35 may choose a higher priced hearing aid and may pay the difference in cost above the limit in this 36 section without any financial or contractual penalty to the insured or to the provider of the 37 hearing aid. The benefits in this section shall not be subject to any greater deductible, 38 coinsurance, copayments or out-of-pocket limits than any other benefits provided by the insurer.
39 Nothing in this section shall prohibit an insurer from offering greater coverage for hearing aids 40 than required by this section. This section shall also require coverage for hearing aids under any 41 non-group policy.

42 SECTION 3. Section 8Y of chapter 176A of the General Laws, as amended by Chapter
43 233 of the Acts of 2012, is hereby amended by adding the following paragraph:-

44 (g) Any contracts, except contracts providing supplemental coverage to Medicare or other 45 governmental programs, between a subscriber and the corporation under an individual or group 46 hospital service plan that is delivered, issued or renewed in the commonwealth shall provide as 47 benefits to all individual subscribers or members within the commonwealth and to all group 48 members having a principal place of employment within the commonwealth, coverage for the 49 cost of 1 hearing aid per hearing-impaired ear up to $500 and 80 percent coverage of the next 50 $1,500 for each hearing aid , as defined in section 196 of chapter 112, every 24 months upon a 51 written statement from the treating physician that the hearing aids are necessary regardless of 52 etiology. Coverage under this section shall include all related services prescribed by a licensed 53 audiologist or hearing instrument specialist, as defined in said section 196 of said chapter 112,

54 including the initial hearing aid evaluation, fitting and adjustments and supplies, including ear
55 molds. The insured may choose a higher priced hearing aid and may pay the difference in cost 56 above the limit in this section without any financial or contractual penalty to the insured or to the 57 provider of the hearing aid. The benefits in this section shall not be subject to any greater 58 deductible, coinsurance, copayments or out-of-pocket limits than any other benefits provided by 59 the insurer. Nothing in this section shall prohibit a corporation from offering greater coverage for 60 hearing aids than required by this section. This section shall also require coverage for such 61 hearing aids under any non-group policy.

62 SECTION 4. Chapter 176B of the General Laws, as amended by Chapter 233 of the Acts
63 of 2012, is hereby amended by inserting, after section 4DD, the following section:-

64 Section 4FF. Any subscription certificate under an individual or group medical service
65 agreement, except certificates which provide supplemental coverage to Medicare or other 66 governmental programs, that shall be delivered, issued or renewed within the commonwealth 67 shall provide as benefits to all individual subscribers or members within the commonwealth and 68 to all group members having a principal place of employment in the commonwealth, coverage 69 for the cost of 1 hearing aid per hearing-impaired ear up to $500 and 80 percent coverage of the 70 next $1,500 for each hearing aid , as defined in section 196 of chapter 112, every 24 months
71 upon a written statement from the treating physician that the hearing aids are necessary 72 regardless of etiology. Coverage under this section shall include all related services prescribed by 73 a licensed audiologist or hearing instrument specialist, as defined in said section 196 of said
74 chapter 112, including the initial hearing aid evaluation, fitting and adjustments and supplies, 75 including ear molds. The insured may choose a higher priced hearing aid and may pay the 76 difference in cost above the limit in this section without any financial or contractual penalty to 77 the insured or to the provider of the hearing aid. The benefits in this section shall not be subject 78 to any greater deductible, coinsurance, copayments or out-of-pocket limits than any other
79 benefits provided by the insurer. Nothing in this section shall prohibit an insurer from offering
80 greater coverage for hearing aids than required by this section. This section shall also require 81 coverage for such hearing aids under any non-group policy.

82 SECTION 5. Section 4N of chapter 176G of the General Laws, as amended by Chapter
83 233 of the Acts of 2012, is hereby amended by adding the following paragraph:-

84 An individual or group health maintenance contract, except contracts providing 85 supplemental coverage to Medicare or other governmental programs, shall provide coverage and 86 benefits for the cost of 1 hearing aid per hearing-impaired ear up to $500 and 80 percent 87 coverage of the next $1,500 for each hearing aid , as defined in section 196 of chapter 112, every 88 24 months upon a written statement from the treating physician that the hearing aids are 89 necessary regardless of etiology. Coverage under this section shall include all related services
90 prescribed by a licensed audiologist or hearing instrument specialist, as defined in said section 91 196 of said chapter 112, including the initial hearing aid evaluation, fitting and adjustments and

92 supplies, including ear molds. The insured may choose a higher priced hearing aid and may pay
93 the difference in cost above the limit in this section without any financial or contractual penalty
94 to the insured or to the provider of the hearing aid. The benefits in this section shall not be 95 subject to any greater deductible, coinsurance, copayments or out-of-pocket limits than any other
96 benefits provided by the insurer. Nothing in this section shall prohibit an insurer from offering
98 coverage for such hearing aids under any non-group policy.

99 SECTION 6. This act shall apply to all policies, contracts and certificates of health
100 insurance subject to section 23 of chapter 32A of the General Laws, section 47U of chapter 175
101 of the General Laws, section 8U of chapter 176A of the General Laws, section 4EE of chapter
102 176B of the General Laws and section 4N of chapter 176G of the General Laws which are 103 delivered, issued or renewed on or after January 1, 2014.
