 if:

113.The tenant or person in actual possession of the premises12refuses to comply.

(ii) The court shall summons immediately the tenant or person in why restitution of the possession of the leased premises should not be made to the landlord.

16 (2) (i) If, for any reason, the tenant or person in actual possession 17 cannot be found, the constable or sheriff shall affix an attested copy of the summons 18 conspicuously on the property.

19 (ii) After notice is sent to the tenant or person in possession by 20 first–class mail, the affixing of the summons on the property shall be conclusively presumed 21 to be a sufficient service to support restitution.

(3) If either of the parties fails to appear before the court on the day stated in the summons, the court may continue the case for not less than six nor more than 10 days and notify the parties of the continuance.

25If the court determines that the tenant breached the terms of the lease (b)(1)26and that the breach was substantial and warrants an eviction, the court shall give 27judgment for the restitution of the possession of the premises and issue its warrant to the sheriff or a constable commanding the tenant to deliver possession to the landlord in as full 2829and ample manner as the landlord was possessed of the same at the time when the lease 30 was entered into. Upon application of either party, the court shall set a day for the hearing of the appeal not less than five nor more $\mathbf{5}$ than 15 days after the application, and notice of the order for a hearing shall be served on 6 7the other party or that party's counsel at least five days before the hearing. If the judgment 8 of the District Court is in favor of the landlord, a warrant shall be issued by the court which 9 hears the appeal to the sheriff, who shall execute the warrant.

10 (c) (1) Acceptance of any payment after notice but before eviction shall not 11 operate as a waiver of any notice of breach of lease or any judgment for possession unless 12 the parties specifically otherwise agree in writing.

13 (2) Any payment accepted shall be first applied to the rent or the 14 equivalent of rent apportioned to the date that the landlord actually recovers possession of 15 the premises, then to court costs, including court awarded damages and legal fees and then 16 to any loss of rent caused by the breach of lease.

17 (3) Any payment which is accepted in excess of the rent referred to in 18 paragraph (2) of this subsection shall not bear interest but will be returned to the tenant 19 in the same manner as security deposits as defined under § 8–203 of this title but shall not 20 be subject to the penalties of that section.
