declaration of candidacy, a declaration of intent to be a write- 473 in candidate, or a nominating petition, or has become a 474 candidate by the filling of a vacancy under section 3513.30 of 475 the Revised Code for any federal, state, or county office, if 476 the nominating petition is for a state or county office, or for 477 any municipal or township office, for member of a city, local, 478 or exempted village board of education, or for member of a 479 governing board of an educational service center, if the 480 nominating petition is for a municipal or township office, or 481 for member of a city, local, or exempted village board of 482 education, or for member of a governing board of an educational 483 service center. When a petition of a candidate has been accepted 484 for filing by a board of elections, the petition shall not be 485 deemed invalid if, upon verification of signatures contained in 486 the petition, the board of elections finds the number of 487 signatures accepted exceeds three times the minimum number of 488 signatures required. A board of elections may discontinue 489 verifying signatures when the number of verified signatures on a 490 petition equals the minimum required number of qualified 491 signatures. 492

Any nonjudicial candidate, ~~other than a candidate for~~ 493
~~judge of a municipal court, county court, or court of common~~ 494

~~pleas~~, who files a nominating petition may request, at the time 495 of filing, that the candidate be designated on the ballot as a 496 nonparty candidate or as an other-party candidate, or may 497 request that the candidate's name be placed on the ballot 498 without any designation. Any such candidate who fails to request 499 a designation either as a nonparty candidate or as an other- 500 party candidate shall have the candidate's name placed on the 501 ballot without any designation. 502

The purpose of establishing a filing deadline for 503 independent candidates prior to the primary election immediately 504 preceding the general election at which the candidacy is to be 505 voted on by the voters is to recognize that the state has a 506 substantial and compelling interest in protecting its electoral 507 process by encouraging political stability, ensuring that the 508 winner of the election will represent a majority of the 509 community, providing the electorate with an understandable 510 ballot, and enhancing voter education, thus fostering informed 511 and educated expressions of the popular will in a general 512 election. The filing deadline for independent candidates 513 required in this section prevents splintered parties and 514 unrestrained factionalism, avoids political fragmentation, and 515 maintains the integrity of the ballot. The deadline, one day 516 prior to the primary election, is the least drastic or 517 restrictive means of protecting these state interests. The 518 general assembly finds that the filing deadline for independent 519 candidates in primary elections required in this section is 520 reasonably related to the state's purpose of ensuring fair and 521 honest elections while leaving unimpaired the political, voting, 522 and associational rights secured by the first and fourteenth 523 amendments to the United States Constitution. 524

Section 2. That existing sections 3501.01, 3505.03, 525

3505.04, and 3513.257 of the Revised Code are hereby repealed.
