Date Introduced: April 01, 2014

Referred To: Recommended for Immediate Consideration

1           WHEREAS, Providence College entered the 2014 Big East Tournament with a 20-11
2 regular season record, tied for third place in the Big East regular season standings, and knowing
3 they had to make a deep run in the Big East Tournament, and maybe even win it, to gain a berth
4 in the NCAA Tournament; and

5           WHEREAS, Providence College was led all season by the steady demeanor and 6 respected leadership provided by Head Coach Ed Cooley, and the magnificent play provided by 7 star guard Bryce Cotton, who turned in one of the greatest seasons in the storied history of 8 Providence College Basketball. Cotton led Providence College in most scoring categories, and 9 assists, and was a unanimous All-Big East First Team selection. Additionally, Cotton was named
10 a Second-Team National All-American, and he was named the Most Valuable Player of the 2014
11 Big East Conference Tournament; and

12           WHEREAS, Providence College also benefited all season by the tough inside play, 13 rebounding and leadership provided by Kadeem Batts, the solid all-round play contributed by 14 LaDontae Henton, and the supplementary support offered by Tyler Harris, Josh Fortune, and 15 Carson Desrosiers; and

16           WHEREAS, The 2013-2014 Providence College Friars entered the 2014 Conference
17 Tournament of the newly reconfigured Big East Conference hungry, determined, and desperate 18 for wins. They ended up turning the Tournament into a Madison Square Garden Friar party. After 19 beating St John's in a hard fought first round game, they defeated Seton Hall in the Semi-Finals.

1 In a thrilling championship game, Providence College, led by Bryce Cotton's 23 points, held off a
2 furious Creighton rally, and their All-American and Player of the Year candidate, Doug 3 McDermott, to win the 2014 Big East Championship Tournament and secure a berth in the 2014
4 NCAA Tournament; now, therefore be it

5           RESOLVED, That this Senate of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations
6 hereby congratulates the 2013-2014 Providence College Men's Basketball Team on winning the
