

SENATE RESOLUTION 281

By Briggs

A RESOLUTION to commend Hannah Hyatt for exemplary service as a legislative intern.

WHEREAS, each legislative session, this body is pleased to recognize certain persons who have committed themselves, through their adroit service, to the betterment of the legislative process; and

WHEREAS, Hannah Hyatt is one such individual, who has distinguished herself in her role as a legislative intern for Senator Richard Briggs; her work and historical knowledge have resulted in innumerable benefits for the legislators she assisted and the General Assembly as a whole; and

WHEREAS, a student at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, where she is highly regarded by her peers, Ms. Hyatt has achieved academic success while pursuing degrees in history and political science; and

WHEREAS, the daughter of Holli and David Hyatt, Hannah Hyatt and her mother have both performed the National Anthem on several occasions at sporting events, and some of her fondest memories are from a trip to Washington, D.C., where she received a private tour of the U.S. Capitol building and a flag that was flown over the Capitol; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Hyatt received the 2023 Norman Stanley Smith Award in recognition of her historical knowledge and academic dedication, her interest in history stemming from her family's relation to one of the nation's Founding Fathers; and

WHEREAS, eager to familiarize herself with the characteristics and complexities of Tennessee State government and to further her studies, Ms. Hyatt brought her many abilities and singular expertise to Capitol Hill for the 2024 session of the One Hundred Thirteenth General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, throughout the 2024 legislative session, Hannah Hyatt has surpassed all criteria that define a devoted and conscientious legislative intern; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Hyatt has performed her many duties with incredible energy, extraordinary insight, and rare decorum; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED THIRTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, that we hereby commend Hannah Hyatt for outstanding service as a legislative intern for Senator Richard Briggs and extend to her our best wishes for every future success.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
