20 SEC. 4. ADMINISTRATIVE GUIDELINES ON AGREEMENTS.

21       (a) IN GENERAL.—In order to promote uniformity
22 and to assist prosecutors and organizations as they nego-
23 tiate and implement deferred prosecution agreements and 24 nonprosecution agreements, the Attorney General shall,
25 not later than 90 days after the date of the enactment

9 monitor owes those duties.

10 (2) What terms and conditions are appropriate 11 in the agreement, including when, whether, and the 12 degree to which Federal prosecutors should seek 13 monetary penalties, restitution, civil settlements, and 14 post-monitoring conditions.

15 (3) Whether the agreement should include some 16 or all of the requirements of section 8B2.1 of the 14 that agreement.

15 SEC. 6. RESTRICTIONS RELATING TO AGREEMENTS.

16       (a) PAYMENTS TO UNRELATED THIRD PARTIES.—
17 A deferred prosecution agreement shall not require an or-18 ganization to pay money to a third party, other than a
19 monitor or the monitor's staff, if the payment is unrelated 20 to the harm caused by the defendant's conduct that is the 21 basis for the agreement.

22       (b) IMPARTIALITY IN SELECTION OF INDEPENDENT
23 MONITORS.—Attorneys who are or might participate in 24 the prosecution of the case against an organization to be 25 monitored shall have no role in the selection of the inde-

1 pendent monitor, other than suggesting qualifications for 2 the monitor.

3 (c) TREATMENT OF VIOLATIONS AS CONFLICTS OF 4 INTEREST.—The Attorney General shall take appropriate 5 steps to treat a violation of this section as a conflict of 6 interest and to remedy any such conflicts of interest.

7 SEC. 7. JUDICIAL OVERSIGHT OF AGREEMENTS.

8 (a) COURT APPROVAL OF AGREEMENT.—The Gov-
9 ernment shall file each deferred prosecution agreement in 10 an appropriate United States district court. The court 11 shall approve the agreement if the court determines the 12 agreement is consistent with the guidelines for such agree-
13 ments and is in the interests of justice. The agreement
14 shall take effect on the approval of the court.

15 (b) QUARTERLY REPORTS.—Each party to the agree-

20 concern the filer has about the implementation of the 21 agreement. In the final quarterly report, the independent 22 monitor shall include a full and itemized statement of the 23 work done and the compensation earned for that work.

24 (c) COURT REVIEW.—The court shall, on motion of 25 any party or the independent monitor if there is one, re-

1 view the implementation or termination of the agreement,
2 and take any appropriate action, to assure that the imple-
3 mentation or termination is consistent with the interests
4 of justice.

5 SEC. 8. PUBLIC DISCLOSURE RELATING TO DEFERRED
6 PROSECUTION AGREEMENTS.

7 (a) DISCLOSURE ON DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
8 WEBSITE.—Upon the taking effect of a deferred prosecu-
9 tion agreement, the Attorney General shall place the text
10 of the agreement on the public website of the Department

12 any agreement or understanding between an independent 13 monitor appointed pursuant to that agreement and the or-
14 ganization monitored.

15 (b) EXCEPTIONS APPROVED BY COURT.—Subject to 16 the limitation in subsection (c), the court may, upon peti-
17 tion of any interested party, approve an exception to the 18 requirements of this section for good cause shown. Good
19 cause includes that the information proposed to be ex-
20 cepted from the requirements is proprietary, confidential,
21 or a trade secret.

22 (c) MINIMUM DISCLOSURE.—The court may not ap-
23 prove an exception from the requirements of this section 24 for the fact that the deferred prosecution agreement has 25 been filed with the court, the name of the organization

- 1 to which it pertains, or the identity and financial terms
- 2 agreed upon with respect to any independent monitor cho-
- 3 sen in connection with the agreement.
