

118TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. 1842

To amend the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act with respect to the regulation of zootechnical animal food substances.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

JUNE 7, 2023

Mr. MARSHALL (for himself, Ms. BALDWIN, Mr. MORAN, and Mr. BENNET) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition, and Forestry

A BILL

To amend the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act with respect to the regulation of zootechnical animal food substances.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Innovative Feed En-5 hancement and Economic Development Act of 2023” or 6 the “Innovative FEED Act”.

1 SEC. 2. REGULATION OF ZOOTECHNICAL ANIMAL FOOD
2 SUBSTANCES.

3 (a) DEFINITION.—Section 201 of the Federal Food, 4 Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. 321) is amended by 5 adding at the end the following:

6 “(tt)(1) The term ‘zootechnical animal food sub-7 stance’ means a substance that—

8 “(A) is added to the food or drinking water of 9 animals;

10 “(B) is intended to—

11 “(i) affect the byproducts of the digestive 12 process of an animal;

13 “(ii) reduce the presence of foodborne
14 pathogens of human health significance in an 15 animal intended to be used for food; or 16 “(iii) affect the structure or function of the 17 body of the animal, other than by providing nu-

18 tritive value, by altering the animal’s gastro-19 intestinal microbiome; and 20 “(C) achieves its intended effect by acting solely 21 within the gastrointestinal tract of the animal.

22 “(2) Such term does not include a substance that—

23 “(A) is intended for use in the diagnosis, cure, 24 mitigation, treatment, or prevention of disease in an 25 animal;

26 “(B) is a hormone;

1 “(C) is an active moiety in an animal drug,
2 which, prior to the filing of a petition under section
3 409 was approved under section 512, conditionally
4 approved under section 571, indexed under section
5 572, or for which substantial clinical investigations 6 have been instituted and for which the existence of 7 such investigations has been made public;

8 “(D) is an ionophore; or

9 “(E) is otherwise excluded from the definition
10 based on criteria established by the Secretary 11 through notice and comment rulemaking.

12 “(3) A zootechnical animal food substance shall be 13 deemed to be a food additive within the meaning of para-
14 graph (s) and its introduction into interstate commerce
15 shall be in accordance with a regulation issued under sec-
16 tion 409. A zootechnical animal food substance shall not 17 be considered a drug under paragraph (g)(1)(C) solely be-18 cause the substance has an intended effect described in 19 subparagraph (1).”.

20 (b) FOOD ADDITIVES.—Section 409 of the Federal 21 Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. 348) is amend-
22 ed—

23 (1) in subsection (b)—

1 (A) by redesignating paragraphs (3)
2 through (5) as paragraphs (4) through (6), re-3 spectively; and

4 (B) by inserting after paragraph (2) the 5 following:

6 “(3) In the case of a zootechnical animal food
7 substance, such petition shall, in addition to any ex-
8 planatory or supporting data, contain—

9 “(A) all relevant data bearing on the effect 10 the zootechnical animal food substance is in-11 tended to have and the quantity of such sub-
12 stance required to produce the intended effect; 13 and

14 “(B) full reports of investigations made
15 with respect to the intended use of such sub-16 stance, including full information as to the 17 methods and controls used in conducting such 18 investigations.”;

19 (2) in subsection (c)—

20 (A) by amending subparagraph (A) of 21 paragraph (1) to read as follows:

22 “(A)(i) by order establish a regulation (whether 23 or not in accord with that proposed by the peti-
24 tioner) prescribing—

1 “(I) with respect to one or more proposed
2 uses of the food additive involved, the condi-
3 tions under which such additive may be safely
4 used (including specifications as to the par-5 ticular food or classes of food in or on which 6 such additive may be used, the maximum quan-
7 tity which may be used or permitted to remain 8 in or on such food, the manner in which such 9 additive may be added to or used in or on such 10 food, and any directions or other labeling or 11 packaging requirements for such additive as the 12 Secretary determines necessary to assure the 13 safety of such use); and 14 “(II) in the case of a zootechnical animal 15 food substance, the conditions under which such 16 substance may be used to achieve the intended 17 effect; and

18 “(ii) notify the petitioner of such order and the 19 reasons for such action; or”; and

20 (B) in paragraph (3)—

21 (i) in subparagraph (A), by striking “;
22 or” and inserting a semicolon;

23 (ii) in subparagraph (B), by striking 24 the period and inserting “; or”; and

1 (iii) by adding at the end the fol-
2 lowing:

3 “(C) in the case of a zootechnical animal food 4 substance, fails to establish that the proposed use of 5 the substance, under the conditions of use to be 6 specified in the regulation, will achieve the intended
7 effect.”; and

8 (3) by adding at the end the following:

9 “(1) ZOOTECHNICAL ANIMAL FOOD SUBSTANCES.—
10 The labeling of a zootechnical animal food substance—

11 “(1) shall include the statement: ‘Not for use in 12 the diagnosis, cure, mitigation, treatment, or preven-13 tion of disease in animals.’; and 14 “(2) may include statements regarding the in-15 tended effect of the substance on the structure or 16 function of the body of animals, as set forth in sec-17 tion 201(tt)(1).”.

18 (c) MISBRANDED FOOD.—Section 403 of the Federal 19 Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. 343) is amend-
20 ed by adding at the end the following:

21 “(z) If it is a zootechnical animal food substance and 22 the labeling of the food does not include the statement 23 required by section 409(l)(1).”.

24 (d) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in this sec-25 tion, or the amendments made by this section, shall be

1 construed to authorize the Secretary of Health and 2 Human Services to require the use of any zootechnical
3 food substance or food additive (as those terms are defined
4 in section 201 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic
5 Act, as amended by subsection (a)).
