

113TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

S. RES. 563

Expressing the sense of the Senate that the President should pursue extradition authority for international cybercriminals committing credit card theft targeting United States citizens.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

SEPTEMBER 18, 2014

Mr. KIRK (for himself, Mr. McCONNELL, Mr. COATS, Mr. ISAKSON, Mr. CHAMBLISS, Mr. WICKER, Mr. THUNE, Mr. BLUNT, Mr. BOOZMAN, Mr. JOHNSON of Wisconsin, Mr. CORNYN, and Mr. GRASSLEY) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations

RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of the Senate that the President should pursue extradition authority for international cybercriminals committing credit card theft targeting United States citizens.

Whereas the number of United States citizens who have had their identity and financial information compromised as a result of recent data breaches at major retailers exceeds 100,000,000;

Whereas the financial security of middle class Americans has been put at risk by these criminal attacks;

Whereas cybercrimes targeting the financial information of United States citizens are often transnational crimes; and

Whereas the United States does not currently have established extradition agreements with many countries acting as safe havens for cybercriminals: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That it is the sense of the Senate that the
2 President should immediately launch international nego-
3 tiations with the governments of the world's leading pow-
4 ers for new, effective extradition treaties with countries
5 with which the United States has no current extradition
6 authority, as well as renegotiate old, ineffective treaties,
7 in order to combat more effectively international
8 cybercriminals, including those who target the credit card
9 information of United States citizens.
