20 (g) For the first three taxable years of profitability following incorporation,

 22 reduced by two-thirds. The tax reduction provided by this subsection does not apply to 23 the purchase of an existing corporation or to the expansion of an existing corporation.
 24 The tax reduction provided by this subsection does not apply to a new corporation that 25 is owned 50 percent or more by a person or combination of persons that also own 50 26 percent or more of a corporation existing at the time of the incorporation of the new 27 corporation, unless the new corporation is in a separate line of business. The 28 commissioner of commerce, community, and economic development may adopt 29 regulations that identify the method and means for determining whether a corporation
 30 is in a separate line of business. In this subsection, "separate line of business" means a 31 business that provides services or products that are materially different from the

1 services or products of the existing business; for purposes of a corporation engaged 2 primarily in resource extraction, exploration is not a separate line of business from 3 production.
