3 _____
4 * Section 1. AS 13.36.035 is amended by adding new subsections to read:

5 (f) Unless the laws of this state govern the validity, construction, and 6 administration of the trust under (c) of this section, the laws of this state govern the 7 administration of a trust and the courts of this state have exclusive jurisdiction over the 8 trust and its trustees while the trust is administered in this state unless the governing 9 instrument of the trust

10 (1) specifies that the law of a jurisdiction other than this state governs 11 the administration of the trust;

12 (2) expressly prohibits a change in the choice of law for the 13 administration of the trust; and 1 (3) expressly states that a change in the choice of law for the 2 administration of the trust may not occur, even if a trustee from another jurisdiction 3 becomes a trustee of the trust.

4 (g) In (f) of this section, a trust is considered to be administered in this state if 5 (1) the governing instrument of the trust specifies that the trust is to be 6 administered in this state;

7 (2) the principal office of the trustee having custody of the trust's 8 principal assets and records is located in this state, unless the trustee elects to maintain 9 the administration of the trust in the state whose law is specified in the governing 10 instrument to govern;

11 (3) the only trustee who is acting to administer the trust is a qualified 12 person, unless the trustee elects to maintain the administration of the trust in the state 13 whose law is specified in the governing instrument to govern;

14 (4) a majority of all trustees acting to administer the trust consists of 15 qualified persons, unless a majority of the trustees elects to maintain the 16 administration of the trust in the state whose law is specified in the governing 17 instrument to govern; or

18 (5) a majority of the trustees are not qualified persons and a majority 19 of the trustees, including at least one trustee who is a qualified person, executes an 20 acknowledged instrument that this state shall be the primary place of administration 21 for the trust.

22 (h) The trustee shall make the election in (g)(2) - (4) of this section by an 23 instrument that is acknowledged and filed in a court of the state whose law is specified 24 in the governing instrument to govern.

25 * Sec. 2. AS 13 is amended by adding a new chapter to read:

26 Chapter 48. Uniform Real Property Transfer on Death Act.

27 Sec. 13.48.010. Transfer on death deed authorized. An individual may 28 transfer property to one or more beneficiaries effective at the transferor's death by a 29 transfer on death deed.

30 Sec. 13.48.020. Transfer on death deed revocable. A transfer on death deed 31 is revocable even if the deed or another instrument contains a contrary provision.

1           Sec. 13.48.030. Transfer on death deed nontestamentary. A transfer on 2 death deed is nontestamentary.

3           Sec. 13.48.040. Capacity of transferor. The capacity required to make or 4 revoke a transfer on death deed is the same as the capacity required to make a will.

5           Sec. 13.48.045. When certain deeds void; challenges to deed. (a) A transfer 6 on death deed or an instrument revoking a transfer on death deed is void if it is 7 obtained by fraud, duress, or undue influence.

8           (b) A proceeding must be commenced within 12 months after the transferor's 9 death to

10                   (1) contest the capacity of the transferor; or

11                   (2) determine whether a transfer on death deed or an instrument 12 revoking a transfer on death deed is void because it was obtained by fraud, duress, or 13 undue influence.

14           Sec. 13.48.050. Requirements. A transfer on death deed 15                   (1) except as otherwise provided in (2) and (3) of this section, must 16 contain the essential elements and formalities of a properly recordable inter vivos 17 deed;

18                   (2) must state that the transfer to the designated beneficiary is to occur 19 at the transferor's death;

20                   (3) may not use a beneficiary designation that only identifies 21 beneficiaries as members of a class; a transfer on death deed that uses a beneficiary 22 designation that only identifies beneficiaries as members of a class is void; and 23                   (4) must be recorded before the transferor's death in the public records 24 in the office of the recorder in the recording district where the property is located.

25           Sec. 13.48.060. Notice, delivery, acceptance, consideration not required. A 26 transfer on death deed is effective without

27                   (1) notice or delivery to, or acceptance by, the designated beneficiary 28 during the transferor's life; or 29                   (2) consideration.

30           Sec. 13.48.070. Revocation by instrument authorized; revocation by act 31 not permitted. (a) Subject to (b) of this section, an instrument is effective to revoke a

1 recorded transfer on death deed, or any part of it, only if the instrument

2 (1) is one of the following:

3 (A) a transfer on death deed that revokes the deed or part of the 4 deed expressly or by inconsistency;

5 (B) an instrument of revocation that expressly revokes the deed 6 or part of the deed;

7 (C) an inter vivos deed that expressly revokes the transfer on 8 death deed or part of the deed; or

9 (D) to the extent of the interest transferred by the inter vivos 10 deed, an inter vivos deed that transfers an interest in property that is the subject 11 of a transfer on death deed; and 12 (2) is acknowledged by the transferor after the acknowledgment of the 13 deed being revoked and recorded before the transferor's death in the recording district 14 where the deed is recorded.

15 (b) If a transfer on death deed is made by more than one transferor,

16 (1) revocation by a transferor does not affect the deed as to the interest 17 of another transferor; and 18 (2) a deed of joint owners is revoked only if it is revoked by all of the 19 living joint owners.

20 (c) After a transfer on death deed is recorded, it may not be revoked by a 21 revocatory act on the deed.

22 (d) This section does not limit the effect of an inter vivos transfer of the 23 property.

24 (e) If a recorded power of attorney or the transfer on death deed expressly 25 grants a designated agent of the transferor the power to revoke a transfer on death 26 deed, the designated agent may revoke the transfer on death deed as provided in this 27 section.

28 Sec. 13.48.080. Effect of transfer on death deed during transferor's life.

29 During a transferor's life, a transfer on death deed does not

30 (1) affect an interest or right of the transferor or any other owner, 31 including the right to transfer or encumber the property;

1                   (2) affect an interest or right of a transferee, even if the transferee has 2 actual or constructive notice of the deed;

3                   (3) affect an interest or right of a secured or unsecured creditor or 4 future creditor of the transferor, even if the creditor has actual or constructive notice of 5 the deed;

6                   (4) affect the transferor's or designated beneficiary's eligibility for any 7 form of public assistance;

8                   (5) create a legal or equitable interest in favor of the designated 9 beneficiary; or

10                  (6) subject the property to claims or process of a creditor of the 11 designated beneficiary.

12                   Sec. 13.48.090. Effect of transfer on death deed at transferor's death. (a)

13 Except as otherwise provided in the transfer on death deed, in this section, or in 14 AS 13.12.203, 13.12.702, 13.12.803, or 13.12.804, on the death of the transferor, the 15 following rules apply to property that is the subject of a transfer on death deed and 16 owned by the transferor at death:

17                   (1) subject to (2) of this subsection, the interest in the property is 18 transferred to the designated beneficiary under the deed;

19                   (2) the interest of a designated beneficiary is contingent on the 20 designated beneficiary surviving the transferor; the interest of a designated beneficiary 21 that fails to survive the transferor lapses;

22                   (3) subject to (4) and (5) of this subsection, concurrent interests are 23 transferred to the beneficiaries in equal and undivided shares with no right of 24 survivorship;

25                   (4) if the transferor has identified two or more designated beneficiaries 26 to receive concurrent interests in the property and if the transferor has not named an 27 alternate designated beneficiary under (5) of this subsection for the share of a 28 designated beneficiary that lapses or fails for any reason, the lapsing or failing share is 29 transferred to the other remaining designated beneficiaries in proportion to the interest 30 of each remaining beneficiary in the remaining part of the property held concurrently;

31                   (5) the transferor may identify one or more alternate designated

1 beneficiaries to take the share of a designated beneficiary that lapses or fails for any 2 reason.

3 (b) Subject to AS 40.17, a beneficiary takes the property subject to all 4 conveyances, encumbrances, assignments, contracts, mortgages, liens, and other 5 interests to which the property is subject at the transferor's death. For purposes of this 6 subsection and AS 40.17, the recording of the transfer on death deed is considered to 7 have occurred at the transferor's death.

8 (c) If a transferor is a joint owner and is 9 (1) survived by one or more other joint owners, the property that is the 10 subject of a transfer on death deed belongs to the surviving joint owner or owners with 11 right of survivorship; or

12 (2) the last surviving joint owner, the transfer on death deed is 13 effective.

14 (d) A transfer on death deed transfers property without covenant or warranty 15 of title even if the deed contains a contrary provision.

16 Sec. 13.48.100. Disclaimer. A beneficiary may disclaim all or part of the 17 beneficiary's interest as provided by AS 13.70 (Uniform Disclaimer of Property 18 Interests Act).

19 Sec. 13.48.110. Liability for creditor claims and statutory allowances. (a) 20 To the extent the transferor's probate estate is insufficient to satisfy an allowed claim 21 against the estate, the costs of administration of the estate, or a statutory allowance to a 22 surviving spouse or child, the estate may enforce the liability against property 23 transferred at the transferor's death by a transfer on death deed.

24 (b) If more than one property is transferred by one or more transfer on death 25 deeds, the liability under (a) of this section is apportioned among the properties in 26 proportion to their net values at the transferor's death.

27 (c) A proceeding to enforce the liability under this section must be 28 commenced not later than 12 months after the transferor's death. A proceeding to 29 enforce the liability under (a) of this section may not be commenced unless the 30 personal representative of the transferor's estate has received a written demand by the 31 surviving spouse, a creditor, a child, or a person acting for a child of the decedent.

COMMON QUESTIONS ABOUT THE USE OF THIS FORM

What does the Transfer on Death (TOD) deed do? When you die, this deed transfers the described property, subject to any liens or mortgages (or other encumbrances) on the property at your death. Probate is not required. The TOD deed has no effect until you die. You can revoke it at any time. You are also free to transfer the property to someone else during your lifetime. If you do not own any interest in the property when you die, this deed will have no effect.

How do I make a TOD deed? Complete this form. Have it acknowledged before a notary public or other individual authorized by law to take acknowledgments. Record the form in each recording district where any part of the property is located. The form has no effect unless it is acknowledged and recorded before your death.

Is the "legal description" of the property necessary? Yes.

How do I find the "legal description" of the property? This

1 information may be on the deed you received when you became an 2 owner of the property. This information may also be available in the 3 office of the recorder in the recording district where the property is 4 located. If you are not absolutely sure, consult a lawyer.

5 Can I change my mind before I record the TOD deed? Yes.
6 If you have not yet recorded the deed and want to change your mind, 7 simply tear up or otherwise destroy the deed.

8 How do I "record" the TOD deed? Take the completed and 9 acknowledged form to the office of the recorder in the recording district 10 where the property is located. Follow the instructions given by the 11 recorder to make the form part of the official property records. If the 12 property is in more than one recording district, you should record the 13 deed in each recording district.

14 Can I later revoke the TOD deed if I change my mind? Yes.
15 You can revoke the TOD deed. Except for a court, no one, including 16 the beneficiaries, can prevent you from revoking the deed.

17 How do I revoke the TOD deed after it is recorded? There 18 are three ways to revoke a recorded TOD deed: (1) Complete and 19 acknowledge a revocation form, and record it in each recording district 20 where the property is located. (2) Complete and acknowledge a new 21 TOD deed that disposes of the same property, and record it in each 22 recording district where the property is located. (3) Transfer the 23 property to someone else during your lifetime by a recorded deed that 24 expressly revokes the TOD deed. You may not revoke the TOD deed 25 by will.

26 I am being pressured to complete this form. What should I 27 do? Do not complete this form under pressure. Seek help from a trusted 28 family member, friend, or lawyer.

29 Do I need to tell the beneficiaries about the TOD deed? No, 30 but it is recommended. Secrecy can cause later complications and 31 might make it easier for others to commit fraud.
