8   SYNOPSIS: Under existing law, a judge of probate is

9   liable for any neglect or an omission in taking a

10   bond or for taking an insufficient bond from a

11   conservator or from an executor or administrator of 12   an estate.

13   This bill would provide that the judge of 14   probate would not be liable for actions related to

15   taking a bond from a conservator or from an

16   executor or administrator of an estate unless the 17   action of the judge of probate was wanton,

18   fraudulent, or intentional. The bill would also

19   specify that the judge of probate would have the 20   same immunity as a circuit judge.
