8 COMMENDING THE REVEREND JEFFERY L. DAVIS ON HIS 9 OUTSTANDING ACCOMPLISHMENTS.

10
11 WHEREAS, it is with highest commendation that the 12 Reverend Jeffery L. Davis is recognized for his outstanding 13 accomplishments; and

14 WHEREAS, he was born in Carlton, Alabama, and was 15 reared in Mobile, where he attended Mobile Public Schools;
16 following his graduation from Dunbar High School, he continued
17 his education by attending Spaulding Business College and 18 Oakdale Bible College; he graduated from Lomax-Hannon School
19 of Seminary Studies; he earned his Associate's, Bachelor's,
20 and Master's Degrees in Divinity from Ministry International 21 Institute in Powell, Tennessee; and

22 WHEREAS, the Reverend Davis is an icon in the civil 23 rights struggle, facing many challenges in the quest for equal
24 opportunity, which opened many doors for others; through him a
25 lawsuit was filed paving the way for the first black sheriff
26 of Mobile County; he was the first black supply inspector 27 hired at Brookley Field, the first black supervisor in the

1 Material Receiving Branch, the first to integrate the 2 all-white cafeteria at Brookley Field; following his transfer
3 to Tinker Air Force Base in Oklahoma City, he became the first 4 black supervisor in redistribution and marketing; he was 5 promoted to the position as the first black sub-unit chief,
6 the first black unit and sections chief in the Material
7 Receiving Section; and

8 WHEREAS, following his retirement, he returned to 9 Mobile and continued his mission for equal opportunity; he has 10 served on the Dumas Wesley Center Board, which is a Mobile 11 community organization; he has served as president of the 12 board for the Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance,
13 Crichton Millville Civil Organization, and the Axis-Creola
14 Civic League, and numerous others; and

15 WHEREAS, the Reverend Davis was the pastor of 16 Milledgeville AME Zion Church in the Owassa Community for 17 twenty years; he is married to the love of his life, the 18 Reverend Doctor Dorothy D. Davis, who is the pastor of 19 Pleasant Grove AME Zion Church; now therefore,

20 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, BOTH
21 HOUSES THEREOF CONCURRING, That the Reverend Jeffery L. Davis
22 is heartily commended for his outstanding achievements, and 23 this resolution is offered in highest tribute to him along 24 with best wishes in all future endeavors.
