RECOGNIZING THE INJUSTICE SUFFERED BY MR. ANTHONY RAY HINTON.

WHEREAS, in 1985, Mr. Anthony Ray Hinton was arrested for murder; his public defense attorney did not provide adequate counsel and the evidence provided at trial was inadequate for conviction; and

WHEREAS, although there were no fingerprints or eyewitness testimony introduced at the trial, and despite the testimony of his boss that he was at work at the time the murders occurred, Mr. Hinton was convicted of murder and sentenced to death; and

WHEREAS, he was sent to death row and was held in solitary confinement for nearly three decades; during this time, he lost his beloved mother, who was his faithful supporter and who had an unwavering faith in his innocence; and

WHEREAS, following many years of appeals, and following a U.S. Supreme Court ruling on March 11, 2015, the state sought dismissal of the charges finding no evidence

1 connecting Mr. Hinton to the crime, the Jefferson County
2 Circuit Court granted the motion, and Mr. Hinton was released
3 from prison on April 3, 2015; now therefore,

4 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, BOTH
5 HOUSES THEREOF CONCURRING, That we hereby recognize that Mr.
6 Anthony Ray Hinton was incarcerated and extend our deepest 7 apologies to him for being subjected to nearly three decades
8 on death row for a conviction that was overturned and for 9 which the state declined to re prosecute.

10 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That we hereby commit to 11 review the framework under existing law for compensation of 12 those wrongfully incarcerated to identify necessary
13 improvements to the law to ensure fairness and equality in the 14 compensation process.
