8 RECOGNIZING THE TUSKEGEE ALUMNAE CHAPTER OF DELTA
9 SIGMA THETA SORORITY, INCORPORATED, AND FOUNDERS DAY SPEAKER
10 REVEREND JANAЕ PITTS-MURDOCK, SOUTHERN REGIONAL CHAPLAIN.
11

12 WHEREAS, the Tuskegee Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma
13 Theta Sorority, Incorporated, is herein most highly commended
14 on the occasion of its Founders Day Celebration, featuring 15 guest speaker Reverend Janae Pitts-Murdock, Southern Regional 16 Chaplain of the sorority, with responsibility for Alabama, The 17 Bahamas, Florida, Georgia, Mississippi, and Tennessee; and

18 WHEREAS, as a Member of Delta Sigma Theta, Reverend 19 Janae Pitts-Murdock has served effectively in many capacities;
20 she attended Detroit Country Day School, the University of 21 Michigan-Ann Arbor, where she earned her Bachelor of Arts
22 Degree in Communications Studies; and Carnegie Mellon 23 University in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, where she earned her 24 Master of Science Degree in Public Policy and Management; and

25 WHEREAS, Reverend Pitts-Murdock accepted the call
26 into full-time ministry and completed a Master of Divinity
27 Degree at United Theological Seminary in Dayton, Ohio; she

1 nobly adheres to her motto, "Excellence Honors God and 2 Anything Less is Unacceptable"; and

3 WHEREAS, the Tuskegee Alumnae Chapter was chartered
4 as Zeta Beta Alumnae Chapter on December 5, 1922, by young
5 women from various universities under the leadership of Soror
6 Edna Johnson Morris and Soror Mamie Green Alexander, the first 7 meeting was held at the Oaks, home of the late Booker T.
8 Washington and his wife, Soror Margaret Murray Washington; and

9 WHEREAS, for more than 92 years, the Chapter has 10 sought to participate actively in all segments of the 11 community, supporting educational, cultural, and social 12 growth, and providing scholarships to promising students; and

13 WHEREAS, a sisterhood whose members are strongly 14 committed to each other, the Tuskegee Alumnae Chapter has 15 witnessed many changes and great advancement in opportunities
16 for young women with the unwavering support and encouragement
17 of its members; it has been of significant benefit to young 18 women and continues to enhance the lives of collegians and 19 alumnae; and

20 WHEREAS, Reverend Janae Pitts-Murdock and the 21 Tuskegee Alumnae Chapter are truly deserving of special 22 recognition on the occasion of the Founders Day Celebration on 23 February 11, 2016; now therefore,

24 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF 25 THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, That we recognize and commend
