8 MOURNING THE DEATH OF MR. WARREN G. CORBITT.
9

10 WHEREAS, we mourn the death of Mr. Warren G. Corbitt 11 on April 27, 2013, with deep sadness; his immeasurable life of 12 90 years is commended and celebrated with great thanksgiving;
13 and

14 WHEREAS, the passing of Mr. Corbitt leaves a void in 15 the lives of his loving family, many friends, and the entire 16 community, where he was highly regarded; and

17 WHEREAS, born February 1, 1923, he was the son of 18 the late Reverend James Corbitt and Nettie Pugh Corbitt and 19 was reared in a Christian home; he received his early 20 education in the City Schools of Eufaula and Barbour County;
21 he served a tour of duty in the United States Army with four 22 years in the combat area in the European Theatre; upon 23 receiving an honorable discharge from the U.S. Army in 1946, 24 he attended Miles College and Alabama A&M University, where he 25 received his Bachelor of Science Degree; he earned a Masters
26 in School Administration and Guidance from Tuskegee University
27 in 1962; he further advanced his education at California State

1 University in Sacramento, California, and Alabama State
2 University in Montgomery, Alabama; and

3 WHEREAS, during his distinguished career in 4 education, Mr. Corbitt served as a teacher, Assistant 5 Principal at Comer Vocational High School, Principal of 6 Barbour County Training School of Clayton, Alabama, as the 7 Co-Principal of Clayton High School during the period of 8 integration, and the Principal of Clayton High School, where 9 he retired in 1980; and

10 WHEREAS, Mr. Corbitt was a devoted family man who 11 faithfully led his family through their Christian journey; he 12 was married for more than 50 years to Mrs. Bobbie Corbitt, and 13 their blissful union was blessed with two children, Dr.
14 Jennifer Freeman (Anthony) and Edwin Corbitt (Catherine); his 15 legacy lives on through his three grandchildren, Isis, Nile, 16 and Jovan; and

17 WHEREAS, his philosophy of life, religious 18 convictions, and life experiences reflected a life of service, 19 strength, commitment, love, quality, and meaning, which 20 enabled him to continue through his precious life's journey
21 with an unwavering devotion to Christ, family, and friends;
22 and

23 WHEREAS, Mr. Corbitt was a valued member of the 24 community; although he is greatly missed, his memory will be 25 forever cherished in the hearts and minds of those who were 26 fortunate enough to know him; now therefore,

1                   BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF 2           THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, That while grieving the death of 3           Mr. Warren G. Corbitt, we are highly grateful for his abundant 4           life, and we offer this resolution in highest tribute to his 5           inspiring legacy, as well as in heartfelt sympathy to his 6           family and friends.
