8	RECOGNIZING GEORGIA PARKER SNODGRASS AND CELEBRATING
9	HER LIFE.
10
11	WHEREAS, Georgia Parker Snodgrass was born in
12	Madison County, Alabama, as one of six children to the late
13	Reverend Harry and Lillian Parker; she was educated in the
14	Huntsville school system, completed her Master of Science
15	degree in Elementary Education at Alabama A and M University,
16	and was involved in many other educational opportunities,
17	including one with the U. S. space program; and
18	WHEREAS, Mrs. Snodgrass was an educator in the
19	Huntsville/Madison County systems for over 36 years serving in 20	at least seven different schools and participating in the 21	education of thousands of students, who have fond memories of
22	their time with her; and
23	WHEREAS, a vision impairment forced Mrs. Snodgrass
24	into retirement but did not limit her love for reading; she
25	has a phenomenal memory of poems, essays, and events; she is
26	frequently asked for comments or recollections of Huntsville's history and also that of First Missionary Baptist Church; and

27

1 WHEREAS, Mrs. Snodgrass was married to Reverend Dr.

2 H. P. Snodgrass for 22 years and served as the First Lady of

First Missionary Baptist Church until 1973; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Snodgrass is the proud mother of Reverend Dr. Wayne P. Snodgrass, a pastor in the City of Huntsville; she is also the mother of three children who are now deceased, Reverend Horace N. Snodgrass, who served as a pastor for over 40 years, and Antoinette S. Wilson and Benny L. Snodgrass, who were school teachers; she also has 12 grandchildren, 16 great-grandchildren, and two great-great grandchildren; and

WHEREAS, the Snodgrass family has always been a musical family and Mrs. Snodgrass often used music as a teaching tool; Mrs. Snodgrass and her children frequently sing at family reunions, and it was not unusual to hear Mrs. Snodgrass singing as she cooked and performed other chores in her home; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Snodgrass loves flowers, working crossword and other word puzzles, and is involved in many hobbies and community activities; she is a member of First Missionary Baptist Church where she participates in choir, the missionary department, and the Women's Sunday School Class; she is a Golden Soror of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, participates with The Red Hatters, Titus II Ministry of Progressive Union Baptist Church, and serves others any place she can; now therefore,

1	BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF
2	THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, That we celebrate the life of
3	Georgia Parker Snodgrass and her contributions to our world
