9-10-301. Legislative findings.

The General Assembly finds that:

(1) Commercial surrogacy agreements:

32 relationship between a woman and her child;

33 (2) Commercial surrogacy agreements, whether written or oral,
34 directly conflict with the public policy of the state, including the 35 prohibition of offers of money payments in connection with an adoption, the 36 policy against trafficking in children, and the policy that human beings are

1 not chattel to be purchased or sold; and

2 (3) In opposition to the public policy and law of the state,
 3 commercial surrogacy agreements are explicitly designed to terminate and
 4 destroy:

5 (A) The parental rights of a mother;

6 (B) Her relationship with her child; and

7 (C) Her fundamental liberty and interest in a parental
 8 relationship.
