13 TO RECOGNIZE THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY OF THE 14 GLAMS PROGRAM.

15
16 WHEREAS, the GLAMS program, or Girls Learning About Math and Science, 17 is a daylong, interactive event that reaches eighth grade girls from rural 18 counties in south Arkansas and has impacted over two thousand (2,000) girls 19 over the last ten (10) years; and 20

21 WHEREAS, the GLAMS program connects girls with female professionals in 22 STEM professions from all over the United States, plus four (4) foreign 23 countries, to provide a model and guidelines for young girls to pursue 24 careers in the fields of science, technology, engineering, and math; and

25
26 WHEREAS, for participants, inclusion in the GLAMS program may have 27 significant importance in increasing their college enrollment and graduation
28 with majors and degrees in STEM fields; and 29

30 WHEREAS, former GLAMS participants have returned to take part in the 31 event as speakers and volunteers, paying forward their interest in STEM 32 fields to other girls from rural counties in south Arkansas; and

33
34 WHEREAS, the GLAMS program is a partnership with the Union County
35 Community Foundation, El Dorado School District, El Dorado Education
36 Foundation, and South Arkansas Community College; and
