SECTION 13. Arkansas Code § 9-27-330, concerning juvenile delinquency dispositions and alternatives, is amended to add an additional subsection to read as follows:

(k)(1) The court shall not order a juvenile or the parent, guardian, or custodian of a juvenile to pay costs, fees, or other expenses associated with a program or service ordered by the court under this section.

(2) This subsection does not prohibit a court from ordering restitution pursuant to subdivision (a)(7) of this section.

SECTION 14. Arkansas Code § 9-27-331(d)(1)(A), concerning limitations on delinquency dispositions, is amended to read as follows:

(d)(1)(A) The court may enter an order for physical, psychiatric, or psychological evaluation or counseling or treatment affecting the family of a juvenile, at no cost to the juvenile or the parent, guardian, or custodian of the juvenile, only after finding that the evaluation, counseling, or treatment of family members is necessary for the treatment or rehabilitation of the juvenile.

SECTION 15. Arkansas Code § 9-27-332 is amended to read as follows:

9-27-332. Disposition – Family in need of services – Generally.

~~(a)~~ If a family is found to be in need of services, the circuit court may enter an order making any of the following dispositions:

(1)(A) To order family services to rehabilitate the juvenile and his or her family.

(B)(i) If the Department of Human Services is the provider for family services, the family services shall be limited to those services available ~~by~~ from the department's community-based providers or contractors, excluding the contractors with the Division of Children and Family Services and services of the department for which the family applies and is determined eligible.

(ii) To prevent removal when the department is the provider for family services, the court shall make written findings outlining how each service is intended to prevent removal;

(2)(A) If it is in the best interest of the juvenile, transfer custody of juvenile family members to another licensed agency responsible for

1 the care of juveniles or to a relative or other individual at no cost to the 2 juvenile or the parent, guardian, or custodian of the juvenile.

3 (B) If it is in the best interest of the juvenile and 4 because of acts or omissions by the parent, guardian, or custodian of the 5 juvenile, removal is necessary to protect the juvenile's health and safety,
6 the circuit court may enter an order to transfer custody to the department at 7 no cost to the juvenile or the parent, guardian, or custodian of the 8 juvenile.

9 (C) A juvenile in the custody of the department is 10 "awaiting foster care placement", as that term is used in the definition of 11 "homeless children and youths" in the McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act, 12 42 U.S.C. § 11434a(2), if the juvenile:

13 (i) Is placed in a shelter, facility, or other
14 short-term placement with a plan of moving the juvenile within ninety (90)
15 days;

16 (ii) Is transferred to an emergency placement to 17 protect the juvenile's health or welfare;

18 (iii) Is placed in a provisional foster home as 19 defined by § 9-28-402;

20 (iv) Has experienced three (3) or more placements
21 within a twelve-month period; or

22 (v) Is placed in a regular foster home or other 23 placement that is not directly related to the permanency goal identified in 24 the case plan required under § 9-28-111;

25 (3)(A) ~~Order that the parent, both parents, or the guardian of~~ 26 ~~the juvenile~~ Unless participation would cause an undue hardship for the 27 parent, guardian, or custodian of the juvenile, order the parent, guardian,
28 or custodian of the juvenile to attend a court-ordered parental
29 responsibility training program, if available, at no cost to the parent,
30 guardian, or custodian of the juvenile.

31 (B) The court may make reasonable orders requiring proof
32 of completion of ~~such a~~ court-ordered parental responsibility training
33 program within a certain time period and payment of a fee covering the cost
34 of the training program;

35 (4) Place the juvenile on residential detention with electronic 36 monitoring in the juvenile's home at no cost to the juvenile or the parent,

1 guardian, or custodian of the juvenile;

2 (5)(A) Order Unless participation would cause an undue hardship
3 for the juvenile or the parent, guardian, or custodian of the juvenile, order
4 the juvenile, his or her parent, both parents, or guardian or the parent,
5 guardian, or custodian of the juvenile to perform court-approved volunteer 6 service in the community designed to contribute to the rehabilitation of the 7 juvenile or the ability of the parent or guardian parent, guardian, or 8 custodian of the juvenile to provide proper parental care and supervision of 9 the juvenile, not to exceed one hundred sixty (160) hours.

10 (B) Participation in court-ordered volunteer service in 11 the community shall be at no cost to the juvenile or the parent, guardian, or 12 custodian of the juvenile; and

13 (6)(A)(i) Place the juvenile on supervision terms, including 14 without limitation requiring the juvenile to attend school or make 15 satisfactory progress toward attaining a high school equivalency diploma
16 approved by the Adult Education Section, requiring the juvenile to observe a 17 curfew, and prohibiting the juvenile from possessing or using any alcohol or 18 illegal drugs.

19 ~~(B)(ii)~~ The supervision terms shall be in writing.

20 ~~(C)(iii)~~ The supervision terms shall be given to the 21 juvenile at no cost to the juvenile or the parent, guardian, or custodian of 22 the juvenile and explained to the juvenile and to his or her parent,
23 guardian, or custodian by the juvenile intake or probation officer in a 24 conference immediately following the disposition hearing+.

25 ~~(7)(A)(B) Order a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500)~~
26 The court shall not order a fine to be paid by the juvenile, a parent, both 27 parents, a guardian, or a custodian or the parent, guardian, or custodian of 28 the juvenile, or order volunteer service in the community in lieu of a fine,
29 when the juvenile exceeds the number of excessive unexcused absences provided
