1 The bill as proposed to be amended is reprinted as follows:

2 Section 1. Department of administration; lease agreement;
3 Marana prison site; United States government;
4 termination; delayed repeal

5 A. The department of administration shall lease the Marana prison
6 site to the United States government [or a private contractor of the 7 United States government] for $1 per year to house individuals held by the 8 United States government for immigration violations. The lease shall be 9 for an initial term of four years with an option for the United States
10 government [or a private contractor of the United States government] to 11 extend the lease for an additional two years. The agreement shall require 12 the United States government [or a private contractor of the United States
13 government] to maintain the Marana prison site over the full term of the 14 lease in the same or better condition as received at the beginning of the 15 lease. Any repairs, refurbishments or replacements within the Marana
16 prison site shall be made in accordance with generally accepted industry 17 standards.

18 B. The lease agreement pursuant to subsection A of this section 19 shall include a provision that allows the department of administration to 20 terminate the lease and take back control of the Marana prison site if 21 both of the following conditions are met:

22 1. The department of administration provides written notice to the 23 ~~[United States government]~~[lease holder] at least twelve months before the 24 department of administration intends to terminate the lease.

25 2. The department of administration demonstrates that the beds
26 within the Marana prison site are needed to sufficiently house inmates in 27 the custody of this state [or the department of administration
28 demonstrates that it has an agreement for a purchaser of the Marana prison 29 site].

1           C. This section is repealed from and after September 30, 2032.
