HB 2053: G&F; publications revolving fund

Sponsor: Representative Dunn, LD 25

Committee on Land, Agriculture & Rural Affairs

Overview

Increases, from $80,000 to $250,000, the maximum amount of monies that must remain in the Game and Fish Publications Revolving Fund (Revolving Fund) before reverting excess monies to the Game and Fish Fund (Fund).

History

The Revolving Fund consists of monies received from the sale of publications relating to wildlife and activities of the Arizona Game and Fish Department (AZGFD). The monies in the Revolving Fund are appropriated to AZGFD to produce and distribute publications and information.

Currently, any monies in excess of $80,000 revert to the Fund at the end of the fiscal year (A.R.S. §§ 17-269, 17-231).

Provisions

1. Increases, from $80,000 to $250,000, the maximum amount of monies that must remain in the Revolving Fund before reverting excess monies to the Fund.
