HB2089: military veterans; surviving spouses; scholarships

Sponsor: Representative Payne, LD 27

Committee on Military Affairs & Public Safety

Overview

Includes that the surviving spouse of a veteran who has not remarried is eligible for the Spouses of Military Veterans Tuition Scholarship (Scholarship).

History

Under current law the Scholarship, administered by ABOR, is awarded to the spouse of an honorably discharged veteran. ABOR awards the Scholarship, on a first-come first-serve basis, in an amount equal to the tuition and mandatory fees charged by the university or community college which the spouse is enrolled in (A.R.S. § 15-809).

Provisions

1. Broadens the scholarship to include the surviving spouse who has not remarried of an honorably discharged veteran is eligible to receive the scholarship. (Sec. 1)
2. Makes a technical change. (Sec. 1)
