

ARIZONA HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Fifty-sixth Legislature
Second Regular Session

House: LARA DP 8-1-0-0

HB 2191: property; criminal damage
Sponsor: Representative Cook, LD 7
House Engrossed

Overview

Specifies that a form of criminal damage includes recklessly physically obstructing a passageway, rather than parking any vehicle, in a manner that deprives livestock access to the only reasonably available water.

History

Under current law, a person commits a criminal damage by:

- 1) recklessly defacing or damaging property of another person;
- 2) recklessly tampering with property of another person so as to substantially impair its function or value;
- 3) recklessly damaging property of a utility;
- 4) recklessly parking any vehicle in such a manner as to deprive livestock of access to the only reasonably available water;
- 5) recklessly drawing or inscribing a message, slogan, sign or symbol that is made on any public or private building, structure or surface, except the ground, and that is made without permission of the owner; or
- 6) intentionally tampering with utility property (A.R.S. § 13-1602).
