Overview

Subject to voter approval, constitutionally preempts the regulation of employee benefits.

History

Current statute specifies the regulation of employee benefits, including nonwage compensation, paid and unpaid leave and other absences, meal breaks and rest periods is of statewide concern and not subject to further regulation by a city, town or other political subdivision of this State.

Nonwage compensation includes fringe benefits, welfare benefits, child or adult care plans, sick pay, vacation pay, severance pay, commissions, bonuses, retirement plan or pension contributions and other amounts promised to the employee that are more than the minimum compensation due an employee by reason of employment (A.R.S. § 23-204).

Provisions

1. Asserts the regulation of employee benefits, including wage and nonwage compensation, paid and unpaid leave and other absences, meal breaks and rest periods, is of statewide concern.
2. Specifies the regulation of employee benefits is not subject to further regulation by a city, town or county of the State.
3. Adds that the preemption does not affect the authority of a city, town or county to set wages or benefits for municipal or county employees or limit a municipality's or county's authority to enter into and include wage and benefit provision within public works contracts or contracts for personal services.
4. Instructs the Secretary of State to submit this proposition to the voters at the next general election.
