

ARIZONA STATE SENATE
Fifty-Sixth Legislature, Second Regular Session

FACT SHEET FOR S.B. 1072

animal abuser registration; penalties

Purpose

Requires a person who has been convicted of cruelty to animals, animal fighting or bestiality to register with the Department of Public Safety (DPS) within 5 days after conviction or within 10 days after entering and remaining in Arizona. Outlines periods of time that a person must be registered, and classifies failure to register as a class 1 misdemeanor.

Background

A person commits cruelty to animals if the person intentionally, knowingly or recklessly: 1) subjects any animal under the person's custody or control to cruel neglect or abandonment that results in serious physical injury to the animal; 2) subjects any animal to cruel mistreatment; 3) allows any dog that is under the person's custody or control to interfere with, kill or cause physical injury to a service animal; 4) subjects a domestic animal to cruel mistreatment; or 5) kills a domestic animal without either legal privilege or consent of the domestic animal's owner or handler (A.R.S. § 13-2910).

Cruel neglect means failure to provide an animal with necessary food, water or shelter. Cruel mistreatment means to torture or otherwise inflict unnecessary serious physical injury on an animal or to kill an animal in a manner that causes protracted suffering to the animal (A.R.S. § 13-2910).

A person commits animal fighting by knowingly: 1) owning, possessing, keeping or training any animal if the person knows or has reason to know that the animal will engage in an exhibition of fighting with another animal; 2) for amusement or gain, causing any animal to fight with another animal, or causing any animals to injure each other; or 3) permitting any above act to be done on any premises under the person's charge or control. A person commits bestiality by knowingly: 1) engaging in oral sexual contact, sexual contact or sexual intercourse with an animal; or 2) causing another person to engage in oral sexual contact, sexual contact or sexual intercourse with an animal (A.R.S. §§ 13-2910.01 and 13-1411).

A class 1 misdemeanor carries a maximum sentence of six months and a fine of not more than $2,500 (A.R.S. §§ 13-707 and 13-802).

There is no anticipated fiscal impact to the state General Fund associated with this legislation.

13. Requires a registered person's information to remain in the Registry for as long as required, unless the person has their conviction set aside.
14. Requires the Registry to include:
 - a) the current photograph of the convicted person;
 - b) the convicted person's full legal name and current address; and
 - c) any other information that is necessary to properly identify the person as determined DPS.
15. Prohibits the Registry from including a person's social security number, nonoperating identification, driver's license or any other state or federal identification number.
16. Requires DPS to remove a person's name and all other information after the period of time prescribed unless the person is convicted of a subsequent offense that requires registration.
17. Requires, beginning January 1, 2025, a person or an employee, volunteer or authorized agent of an organization to conduct a search of the Registry for the name of every person who is requesting to adopt, buy or own a companion animal.
18. Prohibits a person from intentionally or knowingly selling, gifting, adopting out or transferring a companion animal to a person who is listed in the Registry.
19. Subjects an individual who intentionally or knowingly sells, gifts, adopts out or transfers a companion animal to a person on the Registry to a civil penalty of at least $1,000.
20. Requires an incarcerated person, upon release from incarceration, to become registered on the Registry.
21. Allows a person to apply to the court for a good cause exception, valid for one year, that allows the person to own, possess or adopt a service animal, and allows a person to request the court renew a good cause exemption 60 days before the good cause exception is set to expire if:
 - a) the person is on supervised or unsupervised probation, community supervision, parole or agrees to be subject to the court's jurisdiction and supervision while owning or possessing a service animal;
 - b) the court determines that it is in the best interest of the service animal and that the person's need for the service animal outweighs any risk to the service animal; and
 - c) the person agrees to not purchase, own, possess or adopt an animal that is not a service animal.
22. Exempts a person or entity from restrictions on selling, gifting, adopting out or transferring companion animals and associated penalties if the person receiving the animal has a good cause exception.
