BY REPRESENTATIVE(S) Nordberg and Saine, Foote, Humphrey, Singer, Sonnenberg, Young, Exum, Fields, Gardner, Ginal, Hullinghorst, Kagan, Labuda, Lee, Melton, Mitsch Bush, Moreno, Rosenthal, Salazar, Williams, Ferrandino, Becker, Dore, Gerou, Kraft-Tharp, Lawrence, Lebsock, Priola, Rankin, Schafer, Tyler;

CONCERNING THE EXEMPTION FROM STATE INCOME TAX OF INCOME THAT IS EARNED BY A NONRESIDENT INDIVIDUAL WORKING TEMPORARILY IN THE STATE TO ASSIST WITH DISASTER EMERGENCY RELIEF ACTIVITIES, AND, IN CONNECTION THEREWITH, MAKING AND REDUCING APPROPRIATIONS.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby finds, determines, and declares that:

(a) During times of flood, fire, hurricane, earthquake, storm, or other disaster emergency, many workers come from other states throughout the United States on a temporary basis to expedite the often enormous and overwhelming task of cleaning up, restoring, and repairing damaged buildings, equipment, and property or even deploying or building new replacement facilities in the state;

(b) This may involve the need to bring in workers with special skills who previously have had no connection to the state to perform activities in the state including but not limited to repairing, renovating, installing, building, rendering services, or assisting with other business activities and for which the workers may be located in the state for extended periods of time to perform such activities;

(c) During times of operating in the state on a temporary basis solely for the purpose of helping the state recover from a disaster emergency, these workers should not be burdened by the additional imposition of the state income tax as a result of assisting with such activities in the state for a temporary period;

(d) The state's income tax is intended for businesses and individuals in the state as part of the conduct of regular business operations or who intend to reside in the state and should not be imposed upon individuals coming into the state on a temporary basis to provide help and assistance in response to a declared state disaster emergency;

(e) It is therefore appropriate for the general assembly to deem that income earned by nonresident individuals in the state for a specified period during and after the declared disaster emergency in connection with the repair and restoration of often devastated property and infrastructure in the state is not subject to the state income tax; and

(f) The intended purpose of the tax expenditure in House Bill 14-1003, enacted in 2014, is to ensure that the state may focus on providing a quick response to the needs of the state and its citizens during a declared state disaster emergency and to reduce the regulatory burden in appreciation for those out-of-state workers and their employers who provide needed assistance to Colorado during declared state disaster emergencies.
