charged with another offense since the discharge of the offense for which the defendant is seeking to have sealed. The district attorney has the right to object to the petition or veto the request for all offenses except petty offenses. Also depending on the severity of the offense, the court can immediately order the record sealed, can consider the petition based on established criteria, or can hold a hearing to decide the petition. The court, in making the decision whether to seal conviction records, considers the privacy interests of the defendant against the public interest in retaining the conviction records as open records. Conviction records cannot be sealed if the defendant still owes court-ordered restitution, fines, or fees. A defendant who successfully petitions a court for the sealing of conviction records must provide the Colorado bureau of investigation (bureau) and each custodian of the conviction records with a copy of the court's order to seal the conviction records and pay to the bureau any costs related to the sealing of the conviction records in the custody of the bureau.

Employers and certain institutions and agencies are prohibited from requiring an applicant to disclose information in sealed conviction records. Law enforcement will report that there are no public records in response to inquiries about sealed criminal conviction records. The office of the state court administrator must post on its web site a list of all petitions to seal conviction records that are filed with a district court. The bill prohibits a district court from granting a petition to seal conviction records until at least 30 days following the posting.

The sentencing court, the probation department, and the defendant's parole officer must advise the defendant of the right to seal conviction records under the appropriate circumstances.

The provisions of the bill apply to convictions entered on and after July 1, 2011. For convictions prior to July 1, 2011, the time frames of the bill are applicable but sealing of the criminal records is available only with the consent of the district attorney and subsequent court review and approval.

1 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

2           SECTION 1. 24-72-308.5 (2) (a) (II), (2) (c), and (2) (d) and the 3 introductory portion to 24-72-308.5 (4) (a), Colorado Revised Statutes,
4 are amended to read:

5           24-72-308.5. Sealing of criminal conviction records
6 information for offenses involving controlled substances for 7 convictions entered on or after July 1, 2008, and prior to July 1, 2011.

1 (2) (a) (II) An order sealing conviction records shall not deny access to 2 the criminal records of a defendant by any court, law enforcement
3 agency, criminal justice agency, prosecuting attorney, or party or agency 4 required by law to conduct a criminal history record check on an 5 individual. An order sealing conviction records shall not be construed
6 to vacate a conviction. A conviction sealed pursuant to this section may 7 be used by a criminal justice agency, law enforcement agency, court, or 8 prosecuting attorney for any lawful purpose relating to the investigation 9 or prosecution of any case, including but not limited to any subsequent 10 case that is filed against the defendant, or for any other lawful purpose 11 within the scope of his, her, or its duties. If a defendant is convicted of 12 a new criminal offense after an order sealing conviction records is 13 entered, the court ~~on its own motion or upon the motion of any~~ 14 ~~prosecuting attorney~~ shall order the conviction records to be unsealed.
15 A party or agency required by law to conduct a criminal history record 16 check shall be authorized to use any sealed conviction for the lawful 17 purpose for which the criminal history record check is required by law.

18 (c) After the hearing described in subparagraph (II) of paragraph 19 (b) of this subsection (2) is conducted and if the court finds that the harm
20 to the privacy of the defendant or the dangers of unwarranted, adverse 21 consequences to the defendant outweigh the public interest in retaining 22 the conviction records, the court may order the conviction records, except 23 basic identification information, to be sealed. In making this 24 determination, the court shall, at a minimum, consider the severity of the 25 offense that is the basis of the conviction records sought to be sealed, the 26 criminal history of the defendant, THE NUMBER OF CONVICTIONS AND 27 DATES OF THE CONVICTIONS FOR WHICH THE DEFENDANT IS SEEKING TO

1 HAVE THE RECORDS SEALED, and the need for the government agency to 2 retain the records. An order entered pursuant to this paragraph (c) shall 3 be directed to each custodian who may have custody of any part of the 4 conviction records that are the subject of the order. Whenever a court 5 enters an order sealing conviction records pursuant to this paragraph (c), 6 the defendant shall provide the Colorado bureau of investigation and each 7 custodian of the conviction records with a copy of the order and shall pay 8 to the bureau any costs related to the sealing of his or her criminal 9 conviction records in the custody of the bureau. Thereafter, the defendant 10 may request and the court may grant an order sealing the civil case in 11 which the conviction records were sealed.

12 (d) Except as otherwise provided in subparagraph (II) of 13 paragraph (a) of this subsection (2), upon the entry of an order to seal the 14 conviction records, the defendant and all criminal justice agencies may 15 properly reply, upon an inquiry in the matter, that PUBLIC conviction 16 records do not exist with respect to the defendant.

17 (4) (a) Applicability. Except as otherwise provided in paragraph 18 (b) of this subsection (4), the provisions of this section shall apply only 19 to conviction records pertaining to judgments of conviction entered on 20 and after July 1, 2008, AND PRIOR TO JULY 1, 2011, for:

21 SECTION 2. Part 3 of article 72 of title 24, Colorado Revised

10 FROM A SINGLE CASE IN WHICH THE DEFENDANT IS CONVICTED OF MORE
