Bill Summary

(Note: This summary applies to this bill as introduced and does not reflect any amendments that may be subsequently adopted. If this bill passes third reading in the house of introduction, a bill summary that applies to the reengrossed version of this bill will be available at http://leg.colorado.gov.)

The process for review and approval by a county of subdivision plats or other plans and agreements affecting certain land use determinations must be conducted pursuant to county resolutions, ordinances, or regulations. The bill provides that such resolutions, ordinances, or regulations may provide for the delegation by a board of county commissioners (board) to one or more county administrative officials the authority to:

- ! Approve or deny final plats, amendments to final plats, and correction plats;
- ! Approve subdivision improvement agreements and other agreements required in connection with a final plat, an amendment to a final plat, or correction plat; and
- ! Review and approve the data, surveys, analyses, studies, plans and designs submitted in connection with a final plat, amendment to a final plat, or correction plat.

Any delegation of authority made pursuant to the bill does not include:

- The approval of any exception to, waiver of, or deviation from any state or county requirement regarding the subdivision of land;
- ! The approval of any agreement for the expenditure of public funds; or
- ! The waiver or restriction of any appeal process provided by county resolution, ordinance, or regulation.

Any delegation of authority made pursuant to the bill must include procedures for public notice and the submission of written comments prior to the administrative approval or denial of a final plat or amendment to a final plat and for the appeal to a board of such administrative approval or denial.
