The bill creates the office of the HOA ombudsman to advocate on behalf of unit owners, mediate disputes, and act as a clearing house for information on the governing law. Sections 2 and 5 of the bill direct the secretary of state to collect a surcharge on registration fees of HOAs that are organized as nonprofit corporations to pay the direct and indirect costs of the ombudsman's office. Section 4 outlines the ombudsman's powers, duties, and qualifications and creates a cash fund. Section 6 provides for sunset review of the ombudsman's office after 10 years.
