statewide association of attorneys, higher education, the department, the civil rights division in the department of regulatory agencies, a national organization that serves minority communities and communities of color, and a business association.

The commission is charged with the following tasks:

- ! Educating employers in the state about issues or practices that may contribute to pay inequities;
- ! Working with business groups and educational institutions to develop and maintain an inventory of best practices for encouraging equal pay;
- ! Encouraging employers to implement equal pay best practices;
- ! Studying other state models of equal pay practices that achieve pay equity;
- ! Developing a program recognizing employers who pursue pay equity practices;
- ! Conducting outreach and education to employees and employers regarding pay equity; and
- ! Working to establish Colorado as a model employer with regard to pay equity.

The commission is required to submit annual reports to the executive director of the department, the business, labor, and technology committee of the senate, and the business affairs and labor committee of the house of representatives (annual reports), detailing the work it has done. The commission may submit recommendations for policy or administrative changes, upon approval of 2/3 of its members, and any such recommendations shall be included in the commission's annual reports. The commission is subject to sunset review, with the repeal of the commission set for July 1, 2015.
