1 University of Minnesota before serving in the United States National 2 Guard from 1957 to 1963; and

3 WHEREAS, Senator Armstrong married Ellen M. Eaton and had 4 two children, Anne and Wil; and

5 WHEREAS, Senator Armstrong fell in love with broadcasting and 6 started working at radio stations at a young age. At 22, he bought a radio
7 station on the outskirts of Denver, KOSI-AM, and began a successful 8 career in radio; and

9 WHEREAS, Throughout his media profession, Senator Armstrong
10 was president of KOSI and KEZW radio stations in Denver, president of 11 the Ambassador Media Corporation, which owned television stations in 12 Idaho and Wyoming, and president of the Colorado Springs newspaper, 13 the Colorado Springs Sun; and

14 WHEREAS, At the age of 25, Senator Armstrong's career as an 15 elected official began when he was elected to the Colorado House of 16 Representatives in 1963; and

17 WHEREAS, Senator Armstrong later served in the Colorado
18 Senate from 1965 to 1972, eventually becoming Senate majority leader;
19 and

20 WHEREAS, In 1972, Senator Armstrong was elected to the United 21 States House of Representatives after winning a newly created seat in the 22 eastern suburbs of Denver, and in 1978, he was elected to the United 23 States Senate; and

24 WHEREAS, During his time in the United States Senate, Senator
25 Armstrong served on the banking and finance committees, as chairman
26 of the Republican Policy Committee, and, after pushing to address 27 impeding shortages in Social Security funding, was appointed to 28 President Reagan's National Commission on Social Security Reform; and

29 WHEREAS, Senator Armstrong was the driving force behind the 30 conservative counter proposal to President Ronald Reagan's proposed 31 budget, ensuring a compromise from the Reagan Administration to cut 32 long-term deficits; and

33 WHEREAS, Senator Armstrong was the winner of the National

1 Taxpayers Union's "Taxpayers' Friend Award" every year since its 2 creation in 1979, and a sponsor of a proposed constitutional amendment 3 to require a balanced federal budget; and

4 WHEREAS, Senator Armstrong was named the "military pay 5 champion" of the United States Senate by Army Times for serving as the 6 Senate's chief proponent in the restoration of the G.I. Bill, which would 7 provide educational benefits to ex-servicemembers; and

8 WHEREAS, In 1982, Senator Armstrong worked with other
9 legislators to pass a resolution that President Reagan signed designating 10 1983 as the "Year of the Bible", which stated that the Bible "has made a 11 unique contribution in shaping the United States as a distinctive and 12 blessed nation and people" and that, quoting President Andrew Jackson, 13 the Bible is "the rock on which our Republic rests"; and

14 WHEREAS, After leaving the United States Senate in 1991,
15 Senator Armstrong returned to Colorado where he continued to pursue 16 many business ventures as the director of six public companies and 17 chairman, owner, and operator of 13 private companies, including three 18 mortgage companies, the Denver-based OppenheimerFunds mutual funds 19 group, and an appraisal company; and

20 WHEREAS, In 2006, Senator Armstrong became the president of 21 Colorado Christian University (CCU); and

22 WHEREAS, During his tenure, CCU's enrollment more than 23 doubled, and the American Council of Trustees and Alumni ranked CCU
24 in the top 2% of colleges nationally the last four years in a row for its core 25 curriculum; and

26 WHEREAS, CCU is an important institution, equipping graduates
27 and an educational workforce with high ethical values and a
28 Christ-motivated desire to serve the most vulnerable in our Colorado 29 communities, and was reflected in Senator Armstrong's legacy; and

30 WHEREAS, Senator Armstrong served as CCU's president until 31 his death and called his work at CCU "the most significant, energizing, 32 and rewarding work [he had] ever undertaken"; and

33 WHEREAS, Senator Armstrong was described as a man of 34 uncompromising faith, and engaged in the Great Commission by serving

1 on the board of directors for the Campus Crusade for Christ for 17 years;
2 and

3 WHEREAS, Senator Armstrong and his wife Ellen had a heart for 4 persecuted Christians and Jews all over the world, the poor, and the 5 unborn, and they used their influence in the public square to improve the 6 plight of the needy, the lost, and the littlest of our brothers and sisters; and

7 WHEREAS, In 2010, Senator Armstrong launched the Western 8 Conservative Summit in Denver, Colorado, which brings thousands of 9 western conservatives together each year to celebrate conservative values 10 and pass the torch to future generations; and

11 WHEREAS, Senator Armstrong is heralded as one of the most 12 influential politicians in Colorado history, hailed by members of both 13 parties for his service to both Colorado and the country, and will be 14 remembered for his faith, joy, and the legacy he leaves behind; now, 15 therefore,

16 Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Seventy-first 17 General Assembly of the State of Colorado, the Senate concurring herein:

18 That, in the death of William L. Armstrong, the people of the state 19 of Colorado have lost a dedicated public servant, spiritual leader, and 20 outstanding citizen, and that we, the members of the Senate and House of 21 Representatives of the Seventy-first General Assembly, do hereby extend 22 our deep and heartfelt gratitude to the members of his family and pay 23 tribute to a man who served the state well and faithfully.

24 Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of this Joint Memorial be sent 25 to his wife, Ellen Armstrong; his children, Anne Armstrong Nordby and 26 Wil Armstrong; his grandchildren, L. Elisabeth Armstrong, Kathryn A.
27 Armstrong, William L. Armstrong IV, James D. Nordby, Daniel Nordby,
28 Matthew Nordby, Benjamin Nordby, and Michael Nordby; former State
29 Senate President John Andrews; Colorado Christian University; and 30 Cherry Hills Community Church.
