5 Armenian genocide orphans; and

6 WHEREAS, Sardarapat is considered by many Americans of 7 Armenian descent as the pivotal event in saving the last remnants of their 8 ancient homeland and has been depicted in arts and literature alike,
9 including in the works of American abstractionist Zareh Maranian, 10 formerly of Colorado Springs; and

11 WHEREAS, The Armenian victory at Sardarapat is a universal

13 facing the worst imaginable conditions for survival; and

14 WHEREAS, In February 1921, the Colorado General Assembly
15 expressed unanimous support for "Armenia, the oldest Christian nation 16 and most martyred of the allies in the World War"; and

17 WHEREAS, This legislative body has recognized April 24 through 18 numerous joint resolutions such as "Colorado Day of Remembrance of 19 the Armenian Genocide" and authorized the 2015 improvements to the 20 Capitol grounds' Armenian Genocide Memorial Garden, including the 21 addition of a Khachkar monument; and

22 WHEREAS, It is the purpose of this Joint Resolution to keep the 23 memory of Sardarapat alive so that Coloradans, whose predecessors 24 generously aided the Armenian relief efforts, can be inspired by the 25 heroic victory against all odds; now, therefore,
