1 1957, where she raised three children, taught at Lowell Elementary, and 2 was very active in the community, serving on the PTAs of Jefferson 3 Elementary, Will Rogers Elementary, and Colorado Springs School for 4 Girls; calling upon her background as a Girl Scout to serve as a Troop 5 Leader for two local Girl Scout Troops; volunteering for Head Start and 6 at the Colorado College chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma; and 7 maintaining an active membership with the Junior League and P.E.O.; 8 and

9 WHEREAS, Representative Philips was elected as a Republican
10 member of the Colorado House of Representatives, District 17, in 1985
11 and represented her El Paso County constituents through 1990, serving on 12 several committees, including as Appropriations Committee Vice-chair
13 in 1987 and 1988 and as Transportation & Energy Committee Vice-chair 14 in 1989 and 1990; and

15 WHEREAS, Representative Philips grew up in a small community
16 with many first-generation Italian, Swedish, Scottish, Finnish, Jewish, and 17 Slavic families who learned English as their common language and often 18 found common ground and married despite cultural differences, and 19 because of this positive cross-cultural community experience, she felt 20 strongly that a common language brings us greater understanding and 21 compassion for one another; and

22 WHEREAS, Representative Philips served as the House sponsor
23 of a bill to make English the official language of the state of Colorado
24 and was the chairman of the subsequent ballot initiative on the subject
25 that successfully passed in 1988, which involved Philips and volunteers 26 collecting over 100,000 signatures, a record for a time when petitioners 27 were not paid; and

28 WHEREAS, In addition to her public service in the Colorado
29 General Assembly, Representative Philips served as a Republican 30 Precinct Committeewoman from the 1970s through the 1990s; was 31 elected President of the Pikes Peak Republican Women's Roundtable
32 from 1994 to 1998, President of the El Paso County Republican Women
33 from 2002 to 2006, and Vice-chairwoman of the Colorado Republican
34 Party from 1997 through 1999; was elected numerous times as a delegate 35 to state, congressional, judicial, and national conventions, chairing the 36 Republican State Convention in 1996; and was active on many 37 campaigns; and

1           WHEREAS, Beyond her direct service to others, Representative
2 Philips pursued several hobbies, cared deeply for dogs, was a proud 3 member of the Pikes Peak Scottish Society, and loved spending time with 4 her family; and

5           WHEREAS, Representative Philips is fondly remembered by Janet 6 Murray Woodward and Pauline Murray Walker, her surviving sisters;
7 Cynthia McCall May, Daniel Howard May, and Cathleen (Ba) Hoffman,
8 her three children; her seven grandchildren; and five great-grandchildren;
9 now, therefore,

10           Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Seventy-first 11 General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

12           That, in the death of Representative Barbara Murray Philips, the
