1            WHEREAS, The United States and the United Kingdom are 2 brought together by our close linguistic, historic, cultural, and political 3 ties and these strong bonds make us natural, resilient, and strong partners 4 and allies in the global community; and

5            WHEREAS, The United States and the United Kingdom draw 6 inspiration from common values: Open government, free speech, and 7 open markets; and

8            WHEREAS, The Magna Carta, created in 1215 in England, 9 established the basis for protecting individual freedoms and strongly 10 influenced the development of the United States Constitution, the Bill of

SENATE
Final Reading
March 16, 2017

1 Rights, and the Colorado Constitution; and

2 WHEREAS, The United States is Britain's largest single trading
3 partner and the United Kingdom's top export destination. The United 4 States remains by far the United Kingdom's largest inward investor. This 5 partnership -- worth over $200 billion a year -- has created a million jobs
6 on both sides of the Atlantic; and

7 WHEREAS, The United Kingdom-United States economic 8 relationship is exceptionally strong in Colorado, where the United 9 Kingdom is the state's largest foreign direct investor, having created over 10 14,000 jobs, and the United Kingdom also ranks in the top ten export 11 markets for Colorado goods and services; and

12 WHEREAS, Numerous Colorado-based companies are investors
13 in the United Kingdom, including many of the state's Fortune 500
14 companies, as well as its small and medium size companies, in industries 15 ranging from infrastructure to technology to food and beverage; and

16 WHEREAS, The United States and the United Kingdom have been 17 historic and consistent partners in matters of international security. As 18 close allies in NATO, permanent members of the United Nations Security
19 Council, and leading nuclear powers, the United States-United Kingdom 20 partnership has been a model of global security for over 70 years; and

21 WHEREAS, Today, United States and United Kingdom troops
22 equip, train, fight, and recuperate together. Several hundred United 23 Kingdom personnel are stationed in the United States, including many 24 British military officers working alongside United States military at 25 Colorado's military bases; and

26 WHEREAS, United States-United Kingdom research partnerships
27 remain critical, with collaborations resulting in 26 Nobel prizes for 28 science and economics. Most recently, United Kingdom-Colorado 29 research collaboration has focused on innovation in renewable energy and 30 in the "Internet of Things"; and

31 WHEREAS, The United States and the United Kingdom continue
32 to build stronger academic ties, with every year roughly 50,000 American 33 students studying in the United Kingdom, and around 11,000 British 34 students studying in the United States, and Colorado's higher education 35 institutions are significant contributors to this relationship; and

1           WHEREAS, The United Kingdom and United States continue to 2 influence one another through excellence in film, music, fine art, and 3 literature, all of which has been on display in Colorado's various arts and 4 cultural venues, including the Denver Art Museum and the Colorado
5 Shakespeare Festival; and

6           WHEREAS, The United Kingdom views Colorado as a key 7 partner and has established a permanent presence in the state through its 8 United Kingdom Government Office, which seeks to build and strengthen 9 business, economic, political, and research ties between Colorado and the 10 United Kingdom; now, therefore,

11           Be It Resolved by the Senate of the Seventy-first General Assembly
12 of the State of Colorado, the House of Representatives concurring herein:

13           That we, the members of the Colorado General Assembly, 14 officially recognize, honor, and celebrate the special relationship between 15 the United Kingdom and Colorado, which is built upon a strong 16 foundation of business, economic, political, academic, research, cultural, 17 and historic ties.

18           Be It Further Resolved, That copies of this Joint Resolution be sent 19 to Governor John Hickenlooper, Colorado's Congressional Delegation, 20 Mayor Michael Hancock, the British Embassy in Washington, D.C., the 21 British Consulate-General in Chicago, the United Kingdom Government
22 Office in Denver, the World Trade Center Denver, Broomfield Sister 23 Cities, City of Evans Sister Cities, Greeley Sister Cities, Center for 24 British and Irish Studies at the University of Colorado, and the British 25 Motorcycle Association of Colorado.
