

COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
OFFICE OF COUNCILMEMBER BROOKE PINTO
THE JOHN A. WILSON BUILDING
1350 PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE, N.W., SUITE 106
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20004

November 02, 2022

Nyasha Smith, Secretary
Council of the District of Columbia
1350 Pennsylvania Avenue N.W.
Washington, DC 20004

Dear Secretary Smith,

Today, along with Councilmembers Janeese Lewis George, Elissa Silverman, Kenyan McDuffie, Mary M. Cheh, Brianne K. Nadeau, Robert C. White, Jr., and Anita Bonds, I am introducing the “Sam ‘The Man’ Burns Way Designation Act of 2022.” Please find enclosed a signed copy of the legislation.

This legislation would symbolically designate 18th Street N.W., between M Street N.W. and N Street N.W., in Ward 2, as “Sam ‘The Man’ Burns Way.” This portion of 18th Street N.W. was chosen for the nightlife establishments in this area where Sam “The Man” Burns was well-known for his disk jockey (“DJ”) skills and contributions to the District’s nightlife, dance culture, and house music community.

Sam Burns was a proud native of Washington, DC, and graduate of Theodore Roosevelt High School, and was recognized as one of the best DJs and music historians in the business. He was known worldwide as “The Man” for his commitment to perfection and excellence in his craft and was considered “The Chuck Brown of Dance Music” for his contributions to house music in Washington, DC.

Sam Burns was a skilled DJ with an impressive musical intuition. He was not only an accomplished performer but also possessed humility, generosity, and willingness to help the next generation of artists, dancers, producers and DJs.

Throughout his career of more than forty years, Sam Burns played dance music at iconic nightclubs in Washington, DC, including The Clubhouse, Chapter II, The Roxy, The Ritz, Tracks, The Insect Club, Tiffany's, Kilimanjaro, Pollen, Red, The East Side, Dragonfly, Chicago's, State of the Union, U Street Music Hall, 18th Street Lounge, and other local venues.

Sam Burns worked tirelessly to support his local community, including dispensing musical advice and life lessons to music lovers, mentoring younger DJs, and helping to keep the DC nightlife, dance culture, and house music community alive and thriving. Sam Burns passed away on March 7, 2020, at the age of 62, leaving behind his son, Mason. This street dedication will honor his legacy in the community he called home.

Should you have any questions about this legislation, please contact my Legislative Counsel, Kristin Ewing, at kewing@dccouncil.gov.

Thank you,
