A CEREMONIAL RESOLUTION

IN THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

To recognize the Public Service Commission of the District of Columbia’s 2017 Winter Ready DC Campaign which encourages District residents to prepare for the upcoming winter weather conditions.

WHEREAS, the District of Columbia citizens can suffer during severe winter weather conditions such as extremely cold temperatures, ice or heavy rain storms, blizzard conditions with blinding snow, strong winds, severe drifting, dangerous wind chill and heavy accumulations of snow;

WHEREAS, severe winter weather can cause power outages and interruptions in electric, telecommunications, and natural gas services, affecting Districts residents, businesses and governments;

WHEREAS, winter weather can lead to injury and death from cold exposure, over-exertion or heart attacks related to snow removal, traffic accidents on icy roads, fallen trees, downed power lines, fires and carbon monoxide poisoning caused by improper indoor use of heat sources;

WHEREAS, because winter heating costs consume a large portion of a household’s budget, District residents should have an “Energy Preparedness Plan” that includes conducting a home energy audit, winterizing their homes by finding and eliminating any leaks, adding insulation where needed, servicing their heating system, and using energy efficient light bulbs;

WHEREAS, District residents can reduce their overall energy costs by keeping meters and vents clear of snow, using a programmable thermostat, and where income eligible, enrolling in utility discount programs;

WHEREAS, when replacing appliances, District residents are encouraged to purchase energy efficient appliances that use less energy than the standard models;

WHEREAS, community planning and preparation can prevent the loss of life, property and hardship if precautionary steps are taken before severe weather occurs and by following appropriate measures during and after winter storms;
