A CEREMONIAL RESOLUTION

IN THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

To recognize Religious Freedom Day, and to declare Wednesday January 16, 2019, as “Religious Freedom Day” in the District of Columbia.

WHEREAS, the Virginia Statute for Religious Freedom (the “Statute”), which was written by Thomas Jefferson and championed by James Madison and served as the forerunner to the approach to religion and government taken by the Framers of the Constitution in 1787, was enacted on January 16, 1786;

WHEREAS, religious freedom is a fundamental American and human right and a cornerstone of democracy, a right for all rather than a privilege for the few, and this fundamental right applies to people of all and of no religious affiliations or beliefs;

WHEREAS, the Statute insists on equality as a guiding and governing principle, specifying that one’s religious identity should be neither an advantage nor a disadvantage under the law;

WHEREAS, the Statute declared that all people “...shall be free to profess, and by argument to maintain, their opinions in matters of religion, and that the same shall in no wise diminish, enlarge, or affect their civil capacities,” and that Thomas Jefferson later said that religious freedom encompasses “the Jew and the Gentile, the Christian and the [Muslim], the [Hindu], and infidel of every denomination;”

WHEREAS, these principles are not only foundational, but remain essential to the health and future of our democracy, and the government may not favor one religion over another, or over nonreligion, without fatally undermining religious freedom;

32 WHEREAS, these principles should guide and inform judicial decisions, legislation and 33 public policy making at all levels of government;

34 WHEREAS, in 1992, Congress designated January 16th as Religious Freedom Day — to 35 celebrate the enactment of the Statute, stipulating only that it be commemorated by a presidential 36 proclamation;

37 WHEREAS, the Statute was central in shaping one of the highest aspirations of the 38 American experiment: religious freedom.

39 RESOLVED, BY THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, that this
40 resolution may be cited as the “Religious Freedom Day Recognition Resolution of 2019”.

41 Sec. 2. The Council of the District of Columbia recognizes the religious freedom of all
42 residents of the District of Columbia, commemorates the enactment of the Virginia Statute for 43 Religious Freedom on January 16, 1786, and declares Wednesday, January 16, 2019 as “Religious 44 Freedom Day” in the District of Columbia.

45 Sec. 3. This resolution shall take effect immediately upon the first date of publication in 46 the District of Columbia Register.
