PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

District of Columbia Hospital Association, Washington, DC
President and Chief Executive Officer

November 2016 - Present

Serve as President and Chief Executive Officer of the DC Hospital Association (DCHA), representing 15 member hospitals, which include acute care, behavioral health, rehabilitation and pediatric facilities. In 2015, DC Hospitals, employed nearly 30,000 people and represent the second largest private employer in the District of Columbia. provided over $1.1 million days in patient care and over $100 million in uncompensated care.

Work closely with the Board of Directors and the membership to advocate and advance District hospitals as leaders in innovative patient care, essential drivers of the local economy and change agents to achieve measurable gains in population health

As CEO, report to a 15-member Board of Directors and work closely with the Board to establish and effectively deliver on strategic goals and priorities on value payment reform, quality and patient safety, improved population health, system integration and data management.

District of Columbia Primary Care Association, Washington, DC

June 2013 – November 2016

Served as the Chief Executive Officer of the DC Primary Care Association (DCPCA). DCPCA is a member driven organization of Federally Qualified Health Centers (FQHCs), community health centers and other advocates, committed to ensuring that all DC residents have access to quality health care that is equitable, easy to navigate and empowering. DCPCA has long been recognized as the community's leading voice on issues of health care equity, quality, data management and access. In 2012, DCPCA's thirteen member health centers provided approximately one million patient visits, representing 200,000 patients, and nearly one out of every three District residents.

Key Accomplishments:

Building Organizational Capacity

- Redesigned organizational structure to more appropriately align with operational functions and core business strategy, including adoption of new outsourcing model for human resources
- Initiated revenue diversification initiative, resulting in nearly $3 million in new revenue in year one
- Generated new and renewed relationships, grant funding and contracts with the private sector, federal government, D.C. Department of Health, local agencies, and the Health Benefit Exchange
- Launched new Corporate Partnership Program and Associate Membership Program to leverage partnerships and provide general operating support funding
- Reset advocacy relationships and aggressively, and effectively positioned DCPCA for leadership and engagement in multiple policy arenas

Public Policy and Reimbursement:

- Strengthened reimbursement for health centers – Successful effort resulted in $18 million in annual revenue to FQHCs – the first significant change in FQHC base rates since 2001
- Working in conjunction with DC Health Care Finance (DHCF) to adopt new reimbursement rules for FQHC's, standards for rebasing, consensus on performance measures and other key policy improvements.
- Partnered with Medicaid managed care leaders, providers and health advocates to address the long-standing obstacles to same-day services
- Launched new initiative to provide technical assistance to support collaboration and system integration models for behavioral and oral health in community based care

Transformation/Value Payment Reform Readiness

- Pay Reform. Launched FQHC Value Payment Reform Initiative - Achieved full participation of all District of Columbia FQHC – which serve nearly one in 3 or 200,000 DC residents. The Value Payment Reform and Practice Transformation initiative is aimed at achieving maximum flexibility to deliver care and improve patient outcomes while appropriately managing cost and alignment with public policy goals and objectives. Key outcomes of this effort include:
  - Establishment of a new readiness assessment tool (in conjunction with Health Management Associates (HMA) to assess key indicators of health center operational and clinical readiness to assume greater accountability for clinical and financial outcomes. The HMA/DCPCA readiness tool has been adopted and replicated by other state primary care associations (PCAs) as a best practice model.
  - Serving on the National Association of Community Health Center Pay Reform Workgroup
  - Conducting a comparative analysis and feasibility study to determine options for health center strategic collaborations including considerations for clinical and financial integration, structure, governance, data collection, etc.

Data Management/Population Health

- DCPCA is leading the development of a data management model and approach for stratifying patient risk and determining appropriate care management strategies.

- In October 2015, DCPCA was awarded a $1.5 million “Helping Build Healthier Communities” grant from United Health Foundation to support the health center transformation initiative and population health management.
- DCPCA achieved recognition by the Office of the National Coordinator for Health Information (ONC) as the second Regional Extension Center (REC) in the nation in meeting ONC performance goals on meaningful use
- Secured systems integration agreement with DC Department of Health (DOH) to support the implementation of public health reporting interfaces between DCPCA hosted Community health centers and the DC Cancer Registry operated by the DC DOH
- Executed agreement to provide and oversee governance and technology management services for the operation of the Capital Partners in Care (CPC) Health Information Exchange
- Sub grantee/partner with The George Washington University on $23 million CMS Health Care Innovation grant that will support the development of a fully integrated Prevention at Home counseling, testing and linkage to care system to reduce the growth in STD diagnoses for at risk populations

Board Development and Engagement

- Partnered with national expert on Boards of Directors/Management collaboration , “Board Source” to develop, implement and execute new strategic roadmap for governance and Board Engagement
- Successfully navigated the adoption of a newly aligned Board structure to more effectively deliver on strategic goals and priorities of organization
- Initiated new model of communication and coordination between Boards and Committees to strengthen communication between Board members, key stakeholders and DCPCA staff

CHILDREN’S NATIONAL MEDICAL CENTER (CNMC), Washington, D.C.

1987 –2012

Children’s National (Children’s National) Medical Center is a pediatric health care system located in the District of Columbia. As the only free-standing children’s hospital in the Washington metropolitan region, Children’s National is dedicated to improving health outcomes for children, locally, nationally and internationally and; leading the creation of innovative solutions to pediatric health challenges
