Michael Johnson

Michael Johnson is the owner of Pipe Dreams Plumbing and Heating, INC.

He began his path in plumbing at Edison Career Center while in high school. During that time he signed up for IT at the VoTech program but there weren't enough interested participants, so he transferred into the plumbing class. Mr. Johnson immediately found that he had a skill in the field and earned the Student Plumber of the Year for the class. After graduation, he began as a full-time plumber's helper. With more training in various classes and programs he quickly moved up the ladder and eventually became a mechanic. After several years with HD Johnson Plumbing and Heating, he moved to JH Peterson Plumbing and Well Pumps, where he learned additional skills and rose to the level of Master Plumber.

After several years at JH Peterson Plumbing, Mr. Johnson found that he had the necessary education and knowledge to go out on his own and began Pipe Dreams Plumbing and Heating, Inc. Mr. Johnson has had this company for over two decades. He specializes in high end-residential renovations and repairs.

A Ward 3 resident, Mr. Johnson has his master plumbing license in Washington, D.C., Maryland and Virginia.
