14 To declare the existence of an emergency with respect to the need to amend Title 47 of the 15 District of Columbia Official Code to provide for triggers to lower the commercial property 16 tax rate for real property with an assessed value of greater than $10 million, to provide 17 that for a certain period specified revenue shall be directed to the Commission on the Arts 18 and Humanities, to clarify that a person or a retailer without a physical presence in the 19 District are vendors required to collect and pay sales tax on retail sales, to expand the 20 definition of retailer to include marketplace facilitators and marketplace sellers, to clarify 21 that the sale of electronically delivered products is a retail sale subject to sales tax, to make 22 conforming changes to the use tax regarding electronically delivered products, to clarify 23 that electronically delivered products subject to sales or use tax are not subject to the gross 24 receipts tax; and to repeal Chapter 39A.
25

26 RESOLVED, BY THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, That this 27 resolution may be cited as the "Internet Sales Tax Emergency Declaration Resolution of 2018".
28

29 Sec. 2.(a) In June 2018, the United States Supreme Court, in South Dakota v. Wayfair,
30 Inc. (138 S. Ct. 2080; 201 L. Ed. 2d 403 (2018)), upheld a South Dakota law that imposed sales 31 tax collection and reporting requirements on large out-of-state retailers that did not have a 32 physical presence in the jurisdiction.

33 (b) As a result of the Court's decision that jurisdictions may tax remote sales even if the 34 seller does not have a physical presence in the jurisdiction, the Council passed the Internet Sales 35 Tax Amendment Act of 2018, passed on 2nd reading on December 4, 2018 (Enrolled version of 36 Bill 22-914) ("permanent legislation").

37 (c) The permanent legislation, which has an applicability date of January 1, 2019, will not 38 be law by January 1, 2019.

39 (d) It is important that the provisions of the permanent legislation become law as soon as 40 possible so that they apply by January 1, 2019.

41 Sec. 3. The Council of the District of Columbia determines that the circumstances
42 enumerated in section 2 constitute emergency circumstances making it necessary that the Internet 43 Sales Tax Emergency Amendment Act of 2018 be adopted after a single reading.

44 Sec. 4. This resolution shall take effect immediately.
