Priya Jayachandran

Priya Jayachandran joined the National Housing Trust (NHT) as president in early 2017.

Ms. Jayachandran leads the Trust's engagement efforts in preservation policy, affordable housing development, lending, and multifamily energy efficiency and sustainability through a balanced approach to fair housing. Under her leadership, the Trust is committed to protecting, improving and maintaining existing affordable housing, while also establishing new affordable housing communities in quality neighborhoods with access to opportunities.

Ms. Jayachandran came to NHT from Volunteers of America, where she served as the Senior Vice President of Affordable Housing Development. In this role, she managed the strategic direction and development of affordable rental housing and led the development, acquisition and/or recapitalization of housing and other real estate projects nationwide. Previously, she worked for the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development's (HUD) Office of Multifamily Housing Programs as a Senior Policy Advisor to help FHA's work with the Low-Income Housing Tax Credit. In December 2014, just four months after starting at HUD, she also assumed Acting Directorship of HUD's Multifamily front office, the Program Administration Office. In December of 2015, she stepped in to the role of Deputy Assistant Secretary for Multifamily Housing Programs.

Prior to joining HUD, Ms. Jayachandran spent more than 15 years in community development real estate banking in New York and Washington, DC. During that time, she led teams delivering debt and tax credit equity, Historic Tax Credits and New Markets Tax Credits for real estate developers of affordable housing and charter schools. Under her leadership, the Mid-Atlantic market at both Citi and Bank of America were the top production offices in the country. Ms. Jayachandran is a recognized industry expert on affordable finance deal structuring. She has also worked for the Inter-American Development Bank in La Paz, Bolivia as a consultant to women's microcredit organizations; Credit Suisse as an investment banking analyst; and for California State Treasurer Kathleen Brown as a Capital Fellow.

A Ward 3 resident, Ms. Jayachandran earned her Bachelor of Arts in Biochemistry from the University of California and her Master of Public Affairs from the Woodrow Wilson School at Princeton University.
