SUMMARY

I am recognized as a goal-driven Affirmative Employment and Diversity and Inclusion Program Manager Professional with an impressive history in exceeding performance objectives and building effective relationships with internal and external parties. I am a well-rounded, innovative leader with creative approach to problem solving, critical thinking and proven business, operations, and management abilities in the Civil Rights, Diversity and Inclusion community. I have the natural ability to lead teams and interface with diverse populations at all organizational levels.

For 14 years, I have been engaged in creating civil rights, affirmative employment, equal employment and diversity and inclusion business strategies; conducting training, developing program plans, and performing management routines that deliver acceptable equal employment, affirmative employment and diversity and inclusion programs with accountability, for the US Department of Agriculture (USDA).

Through my outstanding performance in the positions of Equal Opportunity Specialist (0260 series) and Human Resources Specialist (0201 series), I have held the following positions: Discriminations Complaints Adjudicator, Team Lead; Compliance Program Manager, Team Lead; Branch Chief and Diversity and Inclusion Program Manager, Special Emphasis Program Management.

During my tenure at USDA, I have worked with Senior Managers and Civil Rights Directors to achieve USDA's mission to be a model employer and premiere employer of choice in the federal government. Throughout my career, I have successfully managed employee relations, and customer relations through my proven ability to interpret requirements, influence decision making, and deliver results.
