Ms. Mable Carter LSWA spearheads the resident services program Douglas Knoll Apartments, an apartment community in Southeast, DC. She is a dynamic and inspirational social worker and resident of Southeast with more than 25 years of experience helping families experiencing economic hardships and homelessness in the District of Columbia. Ms. Carter's talent, dedication, tenacity, and love transform every community and every individual she touches.

Ms. Carter tailors her resident services program to youth, poverty, and inter-generational exposure to violence and trauma. She focuses on helping residents improve their life skills and find resources in order to increase their overall sense of security. She provides case management to families including conflict resolution, home inspections, life skills training, and prospective tenant interviews.

In addition to case management, every afternoon during the school year, Ms. Carter enlists volunteer parents to help assist children with their homework. Ms. Carter routinely teaches and secures consultants to teach cooking, nutrition, and budgeting classes for adults and children of Douglas Knoll Apartments. Ms. Carter regularly helps residents obtain the proper attire and otherwise prepare for job interviews, and she refers them to area providers for other job readiness skills. During the summer months, Ms. Carter runs a lunch program for up to 50 school-aged children from the neighborhood.

Ms. Carter has deep roots with the Barber Cosmetology industry. Her father was a licensed barber in Memphis, TN while three of her aunts were hairstylists — and her granddaughter is a budding cosmetologist who soon hopes to open her own salon and spa.

As a Ward 8 resident, Ms. Carter is creative, resourceful, and above all devoted to helping the residents of Southeast, DC.
