DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA MERIDIAN PUBLIC CHARTER SCHOOL FACT SHEET

Meridian Public Charter School has requested that the District of Columbia (the “District”), issue up to $7,500,000 District of Columbia revenue bonds in one or more series to authorize and provide for the loan of the proceeds of the bonds to assist Meridian Public Charter School (“Borrower”), in the financing, refinancing, or reimbursing of costs associated with an authorized project in Ward 1, located at 770 Kenyon St NW, Washington DC.

The Applicant

Meridian Public Charter School (Meridian PCS) is a nurturing and rigorous K-8 school where students learn the skills they need to succeed in today’s increasingly global world. Meridian PCS has served the Washington, DC community since 1999 and is open to all students regardless of prior academic record, ability, or socioeconomic background.

Meridian PCS has a collaborative, child-centric school community that celebrates the diversity of their students and encourages them to interact with city. Students learn about different cultures and forms of expression and can see how they are connected to their own lives. Meridian PCS serves over 600 students in the District, where more than 50 percent of the children they serve are considered at-risk or come from disadvantaged households.

Proposed Project

Meridian PCS has requested issuance of the Districts Revenue Bonds in principal amount of up to $7,500,000.00 to provide for debt financing on a tax exempt or taxable basis. Meridian plans to use these binds to pay all of the cost incurred in connection with the acquisition, renovation and equipping of an educational facility located at 770 Kenyon St NW, Washington DC. These bonds will also pay for the relocation of the borrower’s middle school to 770 Kenyon St. NW. Lastly funds will be used for the refinancing of certain taxable debt, and certain related expenditures including cost of issuance, credit costs and working capital.

Financing Plan

A summary of the proposed sources and uses of funds is attached (see Table 1).

Feasibility/Structure/Security of the Bonds

Jones, Maresca, & McQuade, PA have reviewed the borrower's financial records and believes that this project is financially feasible. Meridian has also received an executed commitment letter from Eagle Bank to provide bond financing. The bonds, if issued, will be secured by a general obligation of the Meridian Public Charter School and will be without recourse to the District of Columbia.

Legal and Regulatory Affairs

The law firm of Orrick Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP, bond counsel to the Revenue Bond Program, has preliminarily determined that Meridian PCS is a 501(c)3 organization and that the project constitutes a permissible undertaking within the meaning of Section 490(a)(1) of the Home Rule Act. The needed District agencies have and or will review the application as it moves through the process and sign off before closing.

Based upon the information set forth in the application, the Industrial Revenue Bond Program staff has determined that the proposed project complies with criteria for approval of a proposed financing transaction through the District's Industrial Revenue Bond Program and will assist the Borrower in furthering its organizational mission.
