I. Summary:

SB 1502 relates the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles (DHSMV), and contains a public record exemption for information received by the DHSMV as a result of an investigation or examination until the investigation or examination ceases to be active or administrative action taken by the DHSMV has concluded or been made part of any hearing or court proceeding.

The bill provides that the DHSMV may release information that is made confidential and exempt in furtherance of its official duties and responsibilities or, if released to another governmental agency, in the furtherance of that agency's official duties and responsibilities.

The bill is subject to the Open Government Sunset Review Act and will stand repealed on October 2, 2026, unless reviewed and reenacted by the Legislature. The bill contains a public necessity statement as required by the Florida Constitution. Because this bill creates a new public records exemption, a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting in each house of the Legislature is required for passage.

The bill takes effect on the same date that SB 1500 or similar legislation takes effect, if such legislation is adopted in the same legislative session or an extension thereof and becomes a law.

II. Present Situation:

Access to Public Records - Generally

The Florida Constitution provides that the public has the right to inspect or copy records made or received in connection with official governmental business.<sup>1</sup> The right to inspect or copy applies to the official business of any public body, officer, or employee of the state, including all three branches of state government, local governmental entities, and any person acting on behalf of the government.<sup>2</sup>

Additional requirements and exemptions related to public records are found in various statutes and rules, depending on the branch of government involved. For instance, s. 11.0431, F.S., provides public access requirements for legislative records. Relevant exemptions are codified in s. 11.0431(2)-(3), F.S., and the statutory provisions are adopted in the rules of each house of the Legislature.<sup>3</sup> Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.420 governs public access to judicial branch records.<sup>4</sup> Lastly, ch. 119, F.S., provides requirements for public records held by executive agencies.

Executive Agency Records – The Public Records Act

Chapter 119, F.S., known as the Public Records Act, provides that all state, county and municipal records are open for personal inspection and copying by any person, and that providing access to public records is a duty of each agency.<sup>5</sup>

A public record includes virtually any document or recording, regardless of its physical form or how it may be transmitted.<sup>6</sup> The Florida Supreme Court has interpreted the statutory definition of “public record” to include “material prepared in connection with official agency business which is intended to perpetuate, communicate, or formalize knowledge of some type.”<sup>7</sup>

The Florida Statutes specify conditions under which public access to public records must be provided. The Public Records Act guarantees every person’s right to inspect and copy any public record at any reasonable time, under reasonable conditions, and under supervision by the custodian of the public record.<sup>8</sup> A violation of the Public Records Act may result in civil or criminal liability.<sup>9</sup>

The Legislature may exempt public records from public access requirements by passing a general law by a two-thirds vote of both the House and the Senate.<sup>10</sup> The exemption must state

<sup>5</sup> Section 119.01(1), F.S. Section 119.011(2), F.S., defines “agency” as “any state, county, district, authority, or municipal officer, department, division, board, bureau, commission, or other separate unit of government created or established by law including, for the purposes of this chapter, the Commission on Ethics, the Public Service Commission, and the Office of Public Counsel, and any other public or private agency, person, partnership, corporation, or business entity acting on behalf of any public agency.”

<sup>6</sup> Section 119.011(12), F.S., defines “public record” to mean “all documents, papers, letters, maps, books, tapes, photographs, films, sound recordings, data processing software, or other material, regardless of the physical form, characteristics, or means of transmission, made or received pursuant to law or ordinance or in connection with the transaction of official business by any agency.”

with specificity the public necessity justifying the exemption and must be no broader than necessary to accomplish the stated purpose of the exemption.<sup>11</sup>

General exemptions from the public records requirements are contained in the Public Records Act.<sup>12</sup> Specific exemptions often are placed in the substantive statutes relating to a particular agency or program.<sup>13</sup>

When creating a public records exemption, the Legislature may provide that a record is “exempt” or “confidential and exempt.” Custodians of records designated as “exempt” are not prohibited from disclosing the record; rather, the exemption means that the custodian cannot be compelled to disclose the record.<sup>14</sup> Custodians of records designated as “confidential and exempt” may not disclose the record except under circumstances specifically defined by the Legislature.<sup>15</sup>

Open Government Sunset Review Act

The Open Government Sunset Review Act<sup>16</sup> (the Act) prescribes a legislative review process for newly created or substantially amended<sup>17</sup> public records or open meetings exemptions, with specified exceptions.<sup>18</sup> It requires the automatic repeal of such exemption on October 2nd of the fifth year after creation or substantial amendment, unless the Legislature reenacts the exemption.<sup>19</sup>

The Act provides that a public records or open meetings exemption may be created or maintained only if it serves an identifiable public purpose and is no broader than is necessary.<sup>20</sup> An exemption serves an identifiable purpose if it meets one of the following purposes and the Legislature finds that the purpose of the exemption outweighs open government policy and cannot be accomplished without the exemption:

- It allows the state or its political subdivisions to effectively and efficiently administer a governmental program, and administration would be significantly impaired without the exemption;<sup>21</sup>

<sup>17</sup> An exemption is considered to be substantially amended if it is expanded to include more records or information or to include meetings as well as records. Section 119.15(4)(b), F.S.

<sup>18</sup> Section 119.15(2)(a) and (b), F.S., provide that exemptions that are required by federal law or are applicable solely to the Legislature or the State Court System are not subject to the Open Government Sunset Review Act.

- It protects sensitive, personal information, the release of which would be defamatory, cause unwarranted damage to the good name or reputation of the individual, or would jeopardize the individual's safety. If this public purpose is cited as the basis of an exemption, however, only personal identifying information is exempt;<sup>22</sup> or
- It protects information of a confidential nature concerning entities, such as trade or business secrets.<sup>23</sup>

The Act also requires specified questions to be considered during the review process.<sup>24</sup> In examining an exemption, the Act directs the Legislature to carefully question the purpose and necessity of reenacting the exemption.

If the exemption is continued and expanded, then a public necessity statement and a two-thirds vote for passage are required.<sup>25</sup> If the exemption is continued without substantive changes or if the exemption is continued and narrowed, then a public necessity statement and a two-thirds vote for passage are not required. If the Legislature allows an exemption to sunset, the previously exempt records will remain exempt unless provided for by law.<sup>26</sup>

Subpoenas

A subpoena is a written order to compel an individual to give testimony on a particular subject, often before a court, but sometimes in other proceedings.<sup>27</sup> A subpoena duces tecum is a type of subpoena that requires the witness to produce a document or documents pertinent to a proceeding.<sup>28</sup> Section 27.04, F.S., “allows the state attorney to issue subpoenas duces tecum for records as part of an ongoing investigation.”<sup>29</sup> The state does not need to establish the relevance and materiality of the information sought through an investigative subpoena,<sup>30</sup> but the subject matter of the investigation must be confined to violations of criminal law.<sup>31</sup>

Section 92.605(2), F.S., describes subpoenas, court orders, and warrants issued in compliance with the Electronic Communications and Privacy Act.<sup>32</sup> The federal act and its Florida counterpart, s. 934.23, F.S., authorize a law enforcement officer, state attorney, or judge to

- What specific records or meetings are affected by the exemption?
- Whom does the exemption uniquely affect, as opposed to the general public?
- What is the identifiable public purpose or goal of the exemption?
- Can the information contained in the records or discussed in the meeting be readily obtained by alternative means? If so, how?
- Is the record or meeting protected by another exemption?
- Are there multiple exemptions for the same type of record or meeting that it would be appropriate to merge?

subpoena the records of an out-of-state corporation that provides electronic communication services or remote computing services to the public. A corporation must comply within 20 days after receipt of the subpoena. However, if the recipient cannot comply within that time period, it must notify the law enforcement officer who sought the subpoena within the 20-day time period that the records cannot be provided and comply as soon as possible.<sup>33</sup> An “out-of-state corporation,” i.e., any corporation qualified to do business in Florida under s. 607.1501, F.S.,<sup>34</sup> is “properly served,” by subpoena or otherwise, when service is effected on that corporation’s registered agent.<sup>35</sup>

Subpoenas in General

A subpoena is an order directed to a person requiring attendance at a particular time and place. A subpoena ad testificandum requires attendance to testify as a witness, while a subpoena duces tecum orders a witness to appear and bring certain documents, records, or other tangible evidence that may be introduced as evidence in a case.<sup>36</sup> Subpoenas may be issued in a criminal investigation,<sup>37</sup> a criminal prosecution during discovery,<sup>38</sup> or for trial<sup>39</sup> by a defendant, his or her counsel,<sup>40</sup> or the state attorney. Generally, a subpoena must state the name of the court, title of action, and time and place the witness is ordered to give testimony or produce other evidence.<sup>41</sup> When a witness is subpoenaed by either party in a criminal case, he or she must remain available for attendance until the case is resolved or until he or she is excused by the court.<sup>42</sup> If a witness departs without permission of the court or intentionally fails to produce requested tangible evidence, he or she may be held in contempt of court.<sup>43</sup>

<sup>33</sup> Section 92.605(2)(b), F.S. If the entity seeking the subpoena shows and the court finds that failure to produce the requested records would produce an “adverse result,” i.e., physical harm, flight from prosecution, destruction of evidence, intimidation of witnesses, or jeopardy to the investigation, the court may order the records be produced earlier than 20 days. Section 92.605(c), (1)(a), F.S. The court may also extend the time to comply with a subpoena if doing so will not cause an adverse result.

<sup>35</sup> Section 92.605(1)(h), F.S. Per s. 607.0505, F.S., a foreign corporation doing business in Florida must have a registered agent, and per s. 607.1507, F.S., such agent must be located in or authorized to transact business in Florida.

<sup>37</sup> Florida law authorizes certain entities to use subpoenas to conduct criminal investigations, including, but not limited to, s. 409.920, F.S. (authorizing the Attorney General to subpoena witnesses or materials, including medical records, during an investigation for Medicaid fraud); s. 415.107, F.S. (authorizing a criminal justice agency investigating a report related to abuse, neglect, or exploitation of a vulnerable adult to subpoena related records); and s. 414.411, F.S. (authorizing the Department of Financial Services to subpoena witnesses and records related to a public assistance fraud investigation).

<sup>38</sup> Fla. R. Civ. P. 3.220(h) allows any party to conduct a deposition by oral examination of any person authorized by the rule, generally including listed witnesses, co-defendants, or unlisted witnesses who have information relevant to the offense charged.

<sup>39</sup> A subpoena for testimony before the court and subpoenas for production of tangible evidence before the court may generally be issued by the clerk of the court or by any attorney of record in the case. Fla. R. Civ. P. 3.361(a).

<sup>40</sup> The United States Constitution guarantees a defendant in a criminal case the right to compulsory processes for obtaining witnesses in his or her favor; U.S. Const. amend. 6.

Contempt of Court

Contempt is a refusal to obey a court's legal order, mandate or decree.<sup>44</sup> There are two main types of contempt: civil and criminal. Civil contempt occurs when a person intentionally fails to do something ordered by the court in a civil case. Civil contempt is intended to compel a party's compliance or compensate a party for losses resulting from the contemptuous conduct.<sup>45</sup>

Criminal contempt results from conduct that tends to intentionally obstruct or interfere with the administration of justice, and its purpose is to punish offensive conduct, vindicate the court's authority, and deter such conduct.<sup>46</sup> Both main types of contempt may also be:

- Direct: when committed in the immediate presence of the court, such as an assault of a testifying witness; or
- Indirect: when committed away from the presence of the court, such as disobeying a court order.

A person commits indirect criminal contempt when he or she intentionally obstructs or interferes with the administration of justice by violating a court order, such as an investigative subpoena.<sup>47</sup> While authorized by statute,<sup>48</sup> criminal contempt is not specifically classified as a felony or misdemeanor, and is instead classified as a common law crime,<sup>49</sup> punishable by up to twelve months in county jail and a fine up to $500.<sup>50 51</sup> Due process of law requires that a party accused of indirect contempt be advised of the charge and provided an opportunity to defend himself or herself.<sup>52</sup>

Investigative Subpoenas in Criminal Cases

Within the criminal justice system, law enforcement is typically responsible for investigating a crime and an assistant state attorney (ASA) prosecutes the offender. However, the State is often called upon to conduct or assist in an investigation which may lead to the filing of criminal charges. Under these circumstances, an ASA is authorized to issue an investigative subpoena.<sup>53</sup> Specifically, s. 27.04, F.S., allows an ASA to issue a subpoena for records<sup>54</sup> as part of any ongoing investigation.<sup>55</sup> An investigative subpoena allows the State to obtain information necessary to determine whether criminal activity is occurring or has occurred. When issuing an investigative subpoena, the State is not required to prove relevancy or materiality of the records sought,<sup>56</sup> but may only gather information that may lead to criminal charges.<sup>57</sup>

Records Subpoenas to Florida Businesses and Out-Of-State Corporations

When investigating a crime relating to the use of electronic communications, such as homicide involving electronically stored surveillance footage, internet child pornography, or vehicular homicide due to careless cell phone usage, ASAs frequently require out-of-state corporations (OOSCs)<sup>58</sup> to produce electronic records under strict time constraints. If such records are not produced timely, electronic records may be destroyed, witnesses' memories may fade, and public safety may be compromised. Under these circumstances, s. 92.605, F.S., permits an ASA, or other qualified law enforcement personnel, to issue an investigative subpoena to an OOSC.<sup>59</sup>

If an ASA issues an investigative subpoena to an OOSC providing electronic communication services or remote computing services to the public, and such records reveal a customer's identity, stored data, or usage of such services, or the destination or recipients of communications sent to or from a customer, the following requirements apply:<sup>60</sup>

- An OOSC's registered agent must be properly served with a subpoena.<sup>61</sup>
- An OOSC's response to the subpoena is due within 20 business days of receipt, unless a longer time period is provided.
  - If a court finds that failing to produce records within 20 business days will cause an adverse result,<sup>62</sup> a shorter time period may be provided.<sup>63</sup>
  - A court may also reasonably extend the time period provided if an extension will not cause an adverse result.
- If an OOSC cannot produce the requested records within the time period provided, it must notify the ASA within the 20-day time period and agree to produce the documents at the earliest possible time.

While explicitly requiring compliance or notification of inability to comply within 20 days, the law does not provide a specific consequence for when an OOSC fails to comply with a subpoena issued under s. 92.605, F.S. As such, contempt of court is the only available remedy an ASA may seek. Because an OOSC is not a single, identifiable person who may be sent to jail, and a one-time $500 fine is unlikely to incentivize timely compliance by a large corporation, a contempt proceeding is neither practical nor useful in punishing or deterring an OOSC's intentional violation or untimely compliance with a subpoena.

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

The bill amends ss. 319.1414, 319.25, 320.861, and 322.71, F.S., to provide that information received by the DHSMV as a result of an investigation or examination is confidential and <sup>58</sup> Out-of-state corporation means any corporation that is qualified to do business in this state under s. 607.1501, F.S.; S. 92.605(1)(e), F.S.

<sup>59</sup> Section 92.605, F.S. permits service on an OOSC by any law enforcement officer seeking a court order or subpoena under ss. 16.56, 27.04, 905.185, or 914.04, F.S., or who is issued a search warrant under s. 933.01, or anyone who is authorized to issue a subpoena under the Florida Rules of Criminal Procedure.

<sup>61</sup> Properly served means delivery by hand or in a manner reasonably allowing for proof of delivery if delivered by mail or facsimile. S. 92.605(1)(h), F.S.

<sup>62</sup> An adverse result includes the potential: danger to the life or physical safety of an individual; risk of flight from prosecution; destruction of or tampering with evidence; intimidation of potential witnesses; or serious jeopardy to an investigation or undue delay of a trial. S. 92.605(1)(a), F.S.

exempt from the disclosure requirements in s. 119.07(1) and s. 24(a), Art. I of the State Constitution until the investigation or examination ceases to be active or administrative action taken by the DHSMV has concluded or been made part of any hearing or court proceeding.

The bill provides the DHSMV may release information that is made confidential and exempt in furtherance of its official duties and responsibilities or, if released to another governmental agency, in the furtherance of that agency's official duties and responsibilities.

The bill is subject to the Open Government Sunset Review Act and will stand repealed on October 2, 2026, unless reviewed and reenacted by the Legislature. The bill contains a public necessity statement as required by the Florida Constitution. Because this bill creates a new public records exemption, a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting in each house of the Legislature is required for passage.

The bill contains a statement of public necessity, which includes:

- The Legislature finds that it is a public necessity that information received by the DHSMV as a result of an investigation or examination conducted pursuant to s. 319.1414, s. 319.25, chapter 320 as provided in s. 320.861, or chapter 322 as provided in s. 322.71, Florida Statutes, be made confidential and exempt from s. 119.07(1), Florida Statutes, and s. 24(a), Article I of the State Constitution until the investigation or examination ceases to be active or administrative action taken by the DHSMV has concluded or been made part of any hearing or court proceeding.
- The release of such information about a pending investigation or examination of violations of ss. 319.1414 and 319.25, F.S., and chapters 320 and 322, F.S., could obstruct or jeopardize the integrity of the investigation or examination and impair the ability of the DHSMV to perform its official duties and carry out its responsibilities under ss. 319.1414 and 319.25, F.S., and chapters 320 and 322, F. S.
- Therefore, the Legislature finds that it is a public necessity to make such information confidential and exempt from public records requirements.

The bill has an effective on the same date that SB 1500 or similar legislation takes effect, if such legislation is adopted in the same legislative session or an extension thereof and becomes a law.

IV. Constitutional Issues:

A. Municipality/County Mandates Restrictions:

None.

B. Public Records/Open Meetings Issues:

Vote Requirement

Article I, s. 24(c) of the State Constitution requires a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting for final passage of a bill creating or expanding an exemption to the public records requirements. This bill enacts a new exemption for information received by the DHSMV as a result of an investigation or examination.

Public Necessity Statement

Article I, s. 24(c) of the State Constitution requires a bill creating or expanding an exemption to the public records requirements to state with specificity the public necessity justifying the exemption. Section 2 of the bill contains a statement of public necessity for the exemption.

Breadth of Exemption

Article I, s. 24(c) of the State Constitution requires an exemption to the public records requirements to be no broader than necessary to accomplish the stated purpose of the law. The purpose of the law is to protect information received by the DHSMV as a result of an investigation or examination. This bill exempts only information received by the DHSMV as a result of an investigation or examination. The exemption does not appear to be broader than necessary to accomplish the purpose of the law.
