House Memorial

A memorial to the Congress of the United States, requesting Congress to urge the government of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela to allow the delivery of humanitarian assistance, to continue and intensify financial sanctions against the regime of Nicolás Maduro, and to instruct appropriate Federal agencies to hold the regime of Nicolás Maduro accountable for violations of law and abuses of internationally recognized human rights.

WHEREAS, the hallmark of democracy is the free and peaceful exercise of rights guaranteed under the constitution of a democratically elected government, and

WHEREAS, in an effort to secure his personal rule and oppress Venezuelan freedoms, the regime of President Nicolás Maduro manipulated elections, established an illegitimate Constituent Assembly to undermine the will of the Venezuelan people, nationalized private industry, abandoned private property rights, and generally assumed control over the government of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela and its institutions, and

WHEREAS, the deterioration of basic governance and the economic crisis in Venezuela have led to an unprecedented

WHEREAS, despite the massive shortages of basic food products and essential medicines, the regime of President Nicolás Maduro has rejected repeated requests from civil society organizations to bring humanitarian aid into the country, and

WHEREAS, over 8 million Venezuelans voted symbolically for a free and democratic government, and

WHEREAS, the regime of President Nicolás Maduro has sought to silence peaceful opposition to his government by killing innocent citizens of Venezuela for their political views, and

WHEREAS, those who cherish democratic principles condemn the perpetration of oppression and intimidation against the Venezuelan people, and

WHEREAS, to ensure the demise of such oppression and intimidation, it is imperative that the United States Government remains committed to continuing and intensifying financial sanctions against the regime of President Nicolás Maduro and the Government of Venezuela, and

WHERAS, the May 2018 national election in Venezuela was fraudulently conducted so that Nicolás Maduro would be awarded a second six-year term as president, and

WHEREAS, pursuant to Title V, Chapter II, Article 233 of the Constitution of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, Juan CS/HM 205 2019

Guaidó, President of the National Assembly of Venezuela, declared himself the interim president of Venezuela, and

WHEREAS, numerous Western Hemisphere countries, including the United States, assert that Nicolás Maduro is not the rightful president and, instead, recognize Juan Guaidó as Venezuela's interim president, and

WHEREAS, the people of Florida stand proudly with the people of Venezuela in the face of tyranny, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

That the Congress of the United States is requested to urge the government of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela to allow the delivery of humanitarian assistance, to continue and intensify financial sanctions against the regime of Nicolás Maduro, and to instruct appropriate Federal agencies to hold the regime of Nicolás Maduro accountable for violations of law and abuses of internationally recognized human rights.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that copies of this memorial be dispatched to the President of the United States, to the President of the United States Senate, to the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and to each member of the Florida delegation to the United States Congress.
